La Jolla To Go To Court Over School

An all out effort to save McFadden Elementary School was supported last week by a group of leaders and other residents of the La Jolla area who vowed to "take the matter to the Supreme Court if necessary."

The neighborhood conclave was held after trustees of the Placentia Unified School District had voted unanimously to close down the school, long a landmark in the area.

Mexican-Americans living in the neighborhood as well as those from throughout the city had jammed the PUSD board meeting on Valentine's Day to hear that their pleas were not to be honored.

The neighborhood meeting was called by the Citizens for the Preservation of McFadden School, with all teachers and other employees of the school district who frequently work with barrio groups, noticeably absent from the session. After considerable dialogue, presided over by chairman Rod Jimenez, local residents called for a vote.

The unanimous tally committed the group, to go to court until every legal means at their disposal is exhausted.

The move to save the school will place the financial burden of court costs on the segment of the population probably least able to bear it, one observer pointed out.

The group also voted to seek an injunction to prevent the sale of the property until the courts can decide the issue; to form committees for political action and to raise money.

One committee group said that they have plans to set up pickets around some of the homes of the board members who voted to close the school.

The first fund raiser is expected to be a city-wide Jamaica (pronounced Ha-mike-ah), to provide the necessary funds to launch the court action.

Two political committees were screening candidates for two open seats on the board of the school district, to be selected in the March 8 election. Both incumbent John Balducci and one candidate Guy Ehrich have vowed to keep the school closed.

Groups were interviewing the other candidates with all sides agreeing to support candidate Stanley Interrante, who is credentialed to teach at junior college level and is a deputy sheriff.

One group is backing James R. Jamieson and another E. Blaine Schoolcraft as second candidates to Interrante.

The candidates interviewed have agreed to "do what they can" to keep the school open.

The group had previously gone house to house to obtain signatures on petitions to save the McFadden School. Many of the adults in the meeting group attended school there as have their children.

Speakers at the community meeting pointed out that the numbers of their children had not declined and they could hardly be blamed for declining enrollment in the area.

Frank Burciaga, one of the spokesmen pointed out that the community "wanted to keep McFadden open. The board has gone against the wishes of the

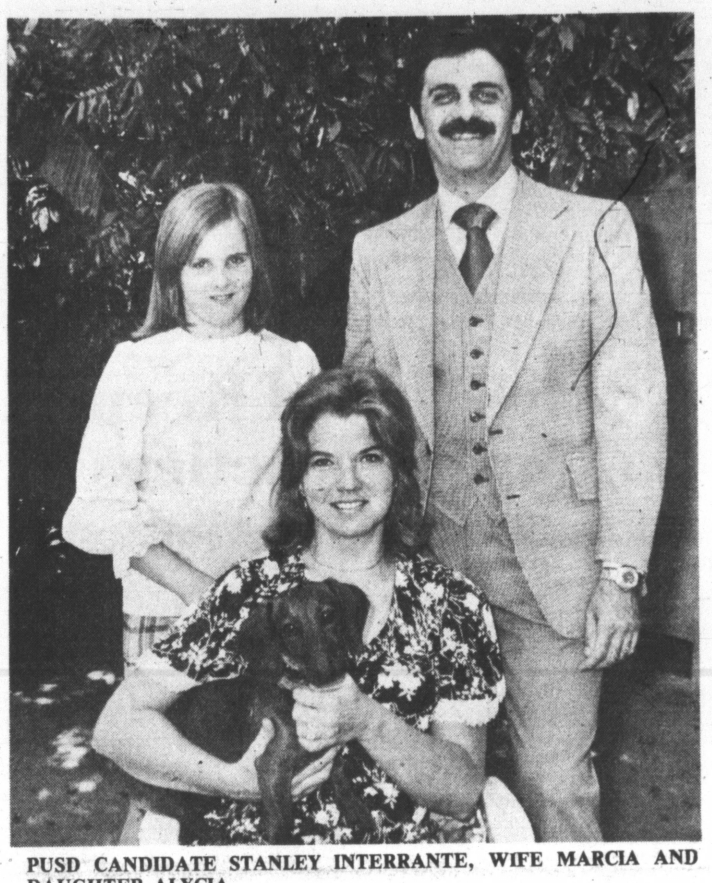
SERVING THE COMMUNITY FOR MORE THAN 66 YEARS

Volume 66—Number 32 | Placentia, California— Wednesday, March 2, 1977 | 10¢ Per Copy



PUSD CANDIDATE STANLEY INTERRANTE, WIFE MARCIA AND DAUGHTER ALYCIA.

Interrante Stresses Basic Principles

"I believe that McFadden School should not have been closed and I do not believe the reasons put forth justify its closing.

"I feel that the McFadden School serves not only the interest of the La Jolla community but also serves the interest of the total community. To disenfranchise, in effect, a group of the population, in such a way that the burden of busing is imposed upon them, to me is unjust and unnecessary."

The candidate for the Placentia Unified School District Board of Trustees is Stanley Interrante, who at one time thought he would like to become a Roman Catholic priest and since that time has educated himself so that he is qualified to teach at junior college level. He is an Orange County deputy sheriff.

Interrante, who is a native of Brooklyn, New York, continues on the subject of McFadden: "In light of the fact that they wish to expend public monies to renovate two other district schools, it seem ludicrous to me to apply a double standard so that in the one case you spend monies to better these two schools and in the other case you close down a third school for economic reasons.

"What about the lost recreational facilities for the community and the possible increased delinquency which often comes about when young people don't have anything constructive to do?

"Being a deputy sheriff I think I can speak with some expertise in that area. I feel that one of the things that is most needed in our society today is social stability, not never ending change for the sake of change."

"I am all for constructive change but you are going to first have to prove to me why what is being changed is no longer sufficient or meets its purpose for being."

"I personally think that the last thing has not been said about the closing of that school. If I am elected I may be only one voice on the board but possibly I could convince a couple of the other members that the action that was taken that Monday night was not right and was unjustified.

"Dollars and cents consideration by themselves are important, yet, they are not the only consideration and as I mentioned earlier, even those dollars and cents reasons which were given have not convinced me of their validity."

PUSD Trustees Eye $30 Million Budget

An almost $30 million budget to operate the schools in the Placentia Unified School District for the fiscal year 1977-78 was expanded before board trustees Monday night by Dr. John Mullender, Associate Superintendent of Administrative Services for the district.

The document, labeled Working Budget #2 adds up to a total of expected incomes of $29,118,422 including a beginning balance. The amount however does not include "column" raises already awarded to teachers nor an estimated increase in the cost to taxpayers for health insurance for PUSD employees.

Of the amount, Dr. Mullender estimated that $22,126,073 would be spent for salaries of all kinds including the employees' benefits. That amount projects "step" increases for employees of $473,520.

Superintendent of Schools John Tynes stated that the budget must be brought into balance by March 14, the legal requirement.

In Dr. Mullender's presentation it was pointed out that the district is about $400,000 shy of having sufficient reserves set aside to classify it as a Class A school. The reserve fund now is estimated around $1 million.

Also not included in the document is any third raise for PUSD employees, an area of negotiation now underway between teachers of the Placentia Unified Education Association and the district.

Mullender pointed out that the district might be considered of medium wealth as far as assessed valuation of its properties is concerned. He said there was a prospect that the tax rate for PUSD now close to $5 might increase five cents. "This is highly tentative," Mullender explained.

Mullender's report included a possible increase in the district's assessed valuation of 10 per cent. "This is conservative," the report pointed out, "because the average increase in assessed valuation over the past five years has exceeded 15 per cent per year."

The work of the budget committee during the next couple of months will be to reduce expenditures in order to provide an adequate ending balance and to "consider the priority of requests already included in the budget against the funding of salary increases and any other requests not currently included in the budget" the report adds.

"Education Code Section 17503 requires that unified school districts must expend 55 per cent of current expense for the sum of teachers' salaries, classroom aides' salaries, health and welfare benefits for teachers and aides and unemployment insurance for aides," the report outlines.

Also listed in Working Budget #2 is $1,883,607 for books and supplies; $1,547,245 for contracts and operating expense; $881,413 for capital outlay; $1,712,473 for debt service and transfers and a contingency fund of $1,037,611.

John Balducci Seeks Reelection

John D. Balducci, who has served on the board of the Placentia Unified School District for five years and is currently vice president, is the only incumbent in the present school board March 8 election.

A project coordinator at Rockwell International, Anaheim, he has lived in the county island near Placentia for 15 years.

Balducci is running on his record which he says includes a platform of basic education--"Last year for the first time every school in the Placentia Unified School District scored higher than national averages in reading and language arts. Seniors scored near the top in every basic skill."

And career preparation: "Every high school graduate now must have a salable skill. Tax relief: "The tax rate has been reduced 39 cents. "Only three unified districts in Orange County have a lower general purpose tax rate. Taxpayers in non-unified districts all pay higher taxes."

On financial responsibility: "The district manages on a lower base income per child than any other unified district in the county. Recently concluded agreement with Anaheim Redevelopment Agency will mean millions of dollars for improvements and expansion over the next 15 years."

On population growth: "Average daily attendance has increased by nearly 5,000 students since 1972. District building has kept pace with seven new schools and portable additions. Double sessions have been avoided." Also school services: "Libraries and reading-media labs are in every school.

INCUMBENT JOHN BALDUCCI SEEKING REELECTION TO THE SCHOOL BOARD IS SHOWN HERE WITH WIFE MARIE AND THEIR FAMILY, SUSAN, JOHN, JR. AND BONNIE.

Psychological services are now available at every grade level," he lists.

Special programs include Early Childhood Education which is ranked third in the state. On community involvement: "More than 1,000 parents help in our classrooms every week."

Balducci states that he is in favor of collective bargaining but does not believe that public employees should have the right to strike.

"The current law does not leagalize the strike or work stoppage. I believe that the right to strike must, in the public interest, be denied to employees of the public," Balducci states.

Short Ballot Greets Voters On March 8

A short ballot will greet voters who report to the polls on Tuesday, March 8 in this area, to elect two trustees for the board of the Placentia Unified School District, two for the Placentia Library District board and three to cover the areas of the North Orange County Community College District.

The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

An official registration of 33,581 electors will be eligible to choose the two PUSD trustees. Seeking the seats are incumbent John Balducci, planning manager Guy Ehrich, political science student James Ellstrom, business management consultant James R. Jamieson, deputy sheriff Stanley Interrante, mechanical engineer William Cook and investment consultant, Blaine Schoolcraft.

Another candidate Philip Borst, college administrator, withdrew during the race because of responsibilities of his position. He is vice president of Fullerton College. However, his name still appears on the ballot.

The other incumbent John Press declined to run.

Statements written by the candidates appear on Page 2 of The Placentia Courier along with the library contestants?

Seeking the library posts are John S. Fahy, retired systems analyst; Clairee B. Tynes, housewife and Edwin Juel, real estate broker. Two will be chosen to replace declining incumbents Alfred Aguirre and Irene Czaplinski.

The number registered to run in the library race is 15,374.

A considerably larger electorate will decide the junior college selections. Altogether 415,032 are eligible to vote.

In local area three, which includes Placentia and Yorba Linda, the incumbent is Salvador Zavala. Others running are Dr. Geraldine Adamson, a nurse and teacher and I. Lee McClendon, computer systems consultant. One will be elected.

In Area 2, incumbent Richard Noble is seeking reelection, opposed by Anthony Van Dyke, a retired police sergeant. In Area 4 the incumbent is W.C. Burrell, Jr. and opponents are Richard Morris, businessman and Edward Gunter in retail management.

Terms are for four years.

Cook Criticizes Teacher Demands

Pointing out that teachers of the Placentia Unified School District, in some categories are seeking raises in their salaries of 30, 31 and 44 per cent over what they are now making, candidate for PUSD trustee, William Cook Monday night struck out at the most recent teacher demands.

"I have gone through it (the proposal) and compared page by page with the contract as it now stands and I think the average citizen would be appalled if he would read through this and find the fine print.

"On almost every page there is something where the PUEA (Placentia Unified Education Association, the teachers' union) is asking for something for themselves either in the way of money or insulation from criticism, or insulation from public input."

Cook pointed out that teachers already receive two kinds of raises before negotiations. The candidate continued: "After 23 years they are asking for a 55 per cent increase. You will find the 12.8 per cent to be the very lowest. One step over in either direction you go 15 or 17 per cent right away.

"Coming down the columns you go to 44 per cent, 31 per cent, 30 per cent and all sorts of things. There are things in here that raise my ire as a parent. I think you ought to get a copy and sit down and look it over because you'll be shocked to find out what these people are asking for.

"I wish people would speak up because it's getting out of hand...I think this continually asking for more and more without any regard of where it comes from, the tax dollars, I think should stop," Cook concluded.

PUEA members offered their demands Monday night at the district board meeting. The next step in negotiations will be the counter proposal by the school district administration to be presented at the board's next session which will follow the March 8 election.

PUSD candidate James Ellstrom also spoke briefly against the PUEA proposal.

Drive-Through Restaurant

Three members of the Placentia City Council were expected Tuesday night to make a final decision on whether a Jack-in-the-Box Drive Through Restaurant would be allowed to locate in the Sierra Vista Shopping Center.

The center is located at the corner of Placentia Avenue and Bastanchury Road.

The appeal by the restaurant was continued from the last council meeting when two city council members unexpectedly declared a conflict of interest. Both Mayor George De Jesus and Councilman Donald Holt listed voting conflicts concerning their employment.

In order to have a quorum, all three remaining members of the council must be available to hear the petition and to vote.

The last city council session brought out a standing room only crowd in protest to the drive-through which was condemned by neighborhood speakers because of noise, congestion, undesirability and because it is directly across the street from an elementary school.

Candidates Receive Endorsements

The members of the Placentia Unified Education Association, a labor organization for district teachers has chosen Guy Ehrich as the one candidate they will support in the upcoming March 8 trustee election.

The group has recently submitted a 60-page proposal seeking additional wages and such benefits as an entire dental plan for teachers and their dependents to be paid by taxpayers.

Ehrich and John Balducci, an incumbent running for reelection to the Placentia Unified School District board of trustees have been endorsed by the district chapter of California School Employees Association which is the labor group for all district employees other than teachers and administration.

Balducci also is being endorsed by the Orange County chapter of the National Women's Political Caucus.

Both Ehrich and Balducci are employed by Autonetics where Ehrich is a planning manager and Balducci a project coordinator.

Council Eyes Chino Hills Open Space

The Placentia City Council Tuesday night was expected to adopt a resolution recommending that a State Park be located in the Chino Hills, where private interests have sought for several years to locate an airport.

The resolution points out that the Chino Hills is one of the few remaining areas available for such an open space development; that it is in the intersection of four major counties, Orange, Los Angeles, Riverside and San Bernardino and over eight million people reside in the region surrounding the section.

Class Center To Be Located In Home

A request to operate a Womans Centre in a house located on Placentia Avenue at Primrose, (which becomes Nutwood in Fullerton) was unanimously approved by Placentia planning commissioners Tuesday night.

The applicant Dolores G. Spring will conduct classes in the house with a maximum of six students to a class. Sessions will be held Monday through Fridays from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. with classes arranged in two hour blocks.

Because of a scarcity of parking space in the immediate area, the petition also included arrangements to lease ten parking spaces from the Exxon service station across the street.

Plans are to offer 13 courses, lasting six weeks. The charge is expected to be $5 a class or $30 a course.

Approval for the use was given for a six months period with a review planned at that time.

Statements From The Candidates

(All Statements Are Written By The Candidates Themselves And Do Not Necessarily Reflect The Approval Of This Newspaper)

Balducci Campaigns On Past Record

JOHN BALDUCCI

I'm proud of the accomplishments of our school district over the last few years. I've been campaigning on this record and emphasizing these achievements. However, I recognize the challenges that face us, as well, and I intend to pursue them with the same dedication and vigor that I've given in the past.

Our ability to evaluate and diagnose our own programs in terms of student achievement has improved dramatically, but still needs substantial refining.

More must be done to assist our secondary students and their parents in planning individual career goals and programs.

Property tax relief and school finance reform legislation are areas I'll be attempting to influence through my County organizational activity.

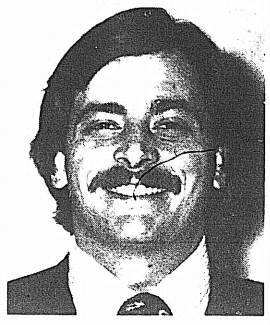
The situation created by the high cost of housing and consequent unpredictable shifts in enrollment patterns requires close attention. Detailed planning is required here and in use of monies accruing from he Anaheim Redevelopment Agency agreement. My top priorities there are a new instructional materials center and renovation of Valencia and Kraemer schools.

My concern with our personnel relationships and meaningful involvement of employees and community runs deep. I believe strongly in the benefits of, and will continue to advocate, a participative approach to decision-making.

I intend to be highly involved in efforts for preservation of McFadden as a community activities center for the La Jolla neighborhood.

I believe that my experience and insight into these challenges justifies the continued confidence of our community, and I respectfully urge your strong support at the polls. —JOHN D. BALDUCCI—

Ellstrom Would Be Responsive To People



JAMES ELLSTROM

There are three major objectives that I will be striving to achieve in my campaign and will follow through to completion if I am elected.

My first goal is to return the Board of Education to its original purpose. To me the board is to represent the people of this community. It is also a representative of the teachers. When there is a problem to be solved by either side no matter how large or small, they should do it swiftly. They are to look at the administration and make sure that there are no problems or conflicts between the teachers and administration. They are to remain forever neutral. This board has strayed from this position. I intend to bring it back to its original purpose.

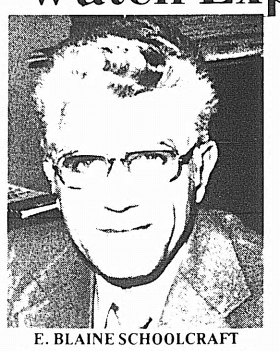
My second objective is to insure that the teachers are being treated fairly. There seems to be much unrest among them. My goal is to break the unrest and allow these professionals to run their classes as they see fit in compliance with the laws but also to allow them freedom to choose the curriculum which they feel will give the children of our community the best education possible.

Lastly, through these two goals I am hopeful that we the people of this community will see a most productive educational system of which we can be proud and this state will be envious.

Thank you.

—JAMES ELLSTROM—

Schoolcraft Would Watch Expenditures



E. BLAINE SCHOOLCRAFT

Your homeowner's cost for education in the PUSD during the past four years has risen approximately 47per cent. A shocking 31 per cent the past year. In other words if your 76-77 assessed valuation of your home is $13,210, you will pay approximately $135 more this year than last year.

Because of this crucial situation, we must take a close look at our present expenditures and make sure that our youngsters are getting the maximum benefits from our tax dollar.

Are the high salaries and other costs that are being spent for support services as benefical to educating our youngsters as lower class sizes would be? Within the last two years twenty-one additional jobs have been created in the district office. Are these administrative costs essential? Is the money that we are spending in addition to the state and federal funds that we receive for experimental programs actually improving our educational system or is it disrupting our present proven programs?

K-6 schools create more continuity in our educational program, administrative procedures, and promote more security for our youngsters. Security is necessary for maximum learning. K-6 schools would help reduce the need and high cost for busing. We should limit busing to provide transportation to the nearest community school when walking is too far or too hazardous.

We must listen to the concerns of all citizens of our community so that we can make sound, knowledgeable, and decisive decisions based on facts and not on the pre-determined opinions of anyone. When elected I will continue to make myself available to receive imput on your concerns.

If you share these concerns, help me with your vote and your support.

—BLAINE SCHOOLCRAFT—

Cook Would Hold Line On High Costs

Some of you may remember my name in connection with P.U.S.D. School Board meetings in the Spring, Summer, and Fall of 1976. At that time, I addressed the School Board regarding what I considered to be unrealistic demands of P.U.S.D. teachers. I still feel strongly about the opinions I expressed at that time and also about the curriculum and the manner in which it is presented to our children.

I think the present members of our School Board are doing a good job and it is not because I disagree with their performance that I have chosen to seek election to the Board. My decision has been brought about by what I feel to be an attempt to staff the Board with members having a close affiliation with the education field. If this were to come about, the objectivity of the Board would be impaired and its performance biased. As I see it, the P.U.S.D. School Board should reflect a cross section of the community in its makeup and not be biased in favor of any group.

I have been a resident of the Placentia Unified School District for approximately seven years and have two children, ages 16 and 13, in district schools. Prior to moving to Placentia, I was a resident of East Whittier and interested in the school system there. At one time it was my privilege to serve on a Citizens' Committee to evaluate the 8th grade history text "Land of the Free." Since moving to Placentia, I have been impressed by the quality of the school system here and my children have done well in their studies.

My primary concern and reason

for seeking election to the Board is to attempt to maintain a sound fiscal policy in our district. I am interested in a dollar's worth of education for every dollar spent. I do feel that some employees of our district have forgotten that our educational system will be in trouble unless their personal aims and goals are examined in the light of funds available.

It is my opinion that my background qualifies me to seek election to the School Board. I have a B.S. Degree in Mechanical Engineering from Carnegie Institute of Technology and am employed by a small private company.

I would appreciate your vote on March 8 and if I am elected, I will work on your behalf to hold the line against the rising cost of education.

—WILLIAM J. COOK—

Interrante Stresses Family, Moral Acts

We are living in a time when social instability seems to be a way of life. Families are breaking up faster than they're being formed. The most fundamental values of our society, which are Judao-Christian in origin and which I support completely, are under heavy attack. The ability of parents to successfully transmit those values to their children is diminishing each day. We must no longer be apathetic or indifferent. Schools must once again help reinforce parental authority and values. I believe this. It's what I will work for.

The answers to societal problems can be found, but not until we as individuals become more unselfish, less egotistic, more humble; in short, more spiritual in outlook and viewpoint. We must slow down long enough to truly view life around us. If we do so the workings of the Creator will become more evident to us.

All good principles or values in life are not worth a darn if they are not worth living by and fighting for, regardless of personal cost. That is not only true in private life but also today, morality cannot be separated from public issues. The type of in public life. Contrary to a common misconception widely held by many philosophy and values held by public officials will of necessity be translated into public policy. Man cannot live in a moral vacuum. The question always is, "what values shall you chose, for chose them you must."

Vote wisely on March 8th.

STANLEY INTERRANTE—

Fahy Would Keep Library Practices

John Fahy if elected as Trustee of the Placentia Library District will continue the existing sound business practices of the current Library Board. He is a fiscal conservative who believes that the public must receive full value for each tax dollar spent. He also considers that the Library must serve equally all segments of the Library District.

Fahy's many years of management of federal governmental budgets, including that for the Navy's Naval Reserve Program, and his experience as head of the Management Systems Group for the Engineering Dept. of a large defense contractor have given him the training needed to provide sound judgement and leadership in the management of the Placentia Library District.

John Fahy is a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy and the National War College. He and his wife have owned a home in Placentia since mid 1963. For the past two years he has been a volunteer member of the Board of Directors of the Placentia Community Clinic and has given vigorous support to that community self help project. The Fahys have a married son who is the Executive Officer of a destroyer and a married daughter whose husband is stationed with the U.S. Navy in the Washington DC area. Mrs. Fahy is a long time active member of the Guild at the Placentia Linda Hospital and of the Fullerton Chapter of the Assistance League.

Jamieson Urges District To Vote

JAMES JAMIESON

The opportunity for concerned citizens to have a voice in determining which candidate should govern the affairs of the Placentia Unified School District for the next four years occurs on Tuesday, March 8, 1977. The next regular election will not occur again until March 1979. To many of the 34,000 registered voters this opportunity to select will be rejected; and a small turnout may ultimately decide who should serve.

Three of the candidates' have volunteered an information statement mailed at their expense with the sample ballot. Most have volunteered their time to appear at candidates' nights to discuss their qualifications and views on the issues and concerns of parents, teachers and community members; this has not provided adequate voter turnout. My plea is that the democracy in which we are privileged to live depends on you; so please make your wishes known at the ballot box.

If elected as your representative, I will work to provide an outstanding education opportunity for all children. To renew a strong emphasis on early development of basic skills in reading, math, spelling, and writing. A good house cannot be built without a solid foundation. The team school approach used in some elementary schools, Early Childhood Education efforts in the primary grades should be re-examined with regard to accomplishment of educational skills development. Each local neighborhood elementary school should offer complete classes for grades K through 6.

With your vote on March 8, my work as a Board Member will strengthen the opportunity of concerned parents, and local community citizens to be heard and an integral part of School Board decisions. My three children and yours eagerly want and need an outstanding education; together we can see this accomplished.

Juel Would Hold Library Expense

My name is Edwin W. Juel
My age is 49.
My occupation is Real Estate Broker.
My education and qualifications are: I have been a resident of Orange County for 13 years, and a homeowner in Placentia for over 8 years, where I presently reside with my wife and 3 daughters.

I have a Bachelor of Science Degree in Electrical Engineering from the Milwaukee School of Engineering, and have been employed as an engineer for 14 years at General Motors, North American Rockwell, and TRW. For the past 6 years I have had my own Real Estate business in the city of Placentia.

I have set as my goal in this office, that the tax rate must be held at the present rate, or reduced if at all possible. The homeowner cannot be expected to continue to bear higher and higher taxes for more and more luxuries. —EDWIN JUEL—

Candidate Ehrich Sees More Growth

We have an obligation to provide equal educational opportunities for all students - every child deserves quality programs, facilities and staff support. Education is a team effort - student, teacher and patron-taxpayer -- and each member of the team deserves fair treatment.

The District is undergoing changes in student population growth patterns. We need to "go slow" in committing ourselves to future school construction, although new schools in the east will be required. The use of portable classrooms is the best short term solution until future requirements become clear.

We do need to bring immediate improvements to Valencia High and Kraemer Junior High school buildings - overdue actions now possible without increasing our taxes.

Our school district is involving students, community and district staff in a continuing study of curriculum and instructional methods. Where beneficial to the individual student, alternate curriculum and methods should be offered at each campus.

As a thirteen year district resident, with two children in district schools, I believe that our school system is moving in a positive direction. My volunteer service to our schools includes two School Bond Drive Committees and three years service on the district Educational Facilities Planning Committee.

For the past eighteen years, I have been employed by Autonetics, Rockwell International, Anaheim, where I am Planning Manager. I also serve as an Elder at the Placentia Presbyterian Church.

I will bring to the Board experience from my previous service to the District, planning and management expertise - and the perspective of a concerned parent.

Clairee Tynes Sees Library Enrichment

I would like to serve the community which has given so much joy and enrichment to me and my family. The library, the schools, the churches, organizations and individual people have all contributed to make Placentia a rich "growing ground" in which to raise children--and a happy place for families because the tenets of home are strong here.

My service in our community has been directed toward church and school through the formative years of my children. My fifth child is now in college and I am free to devote time to other areas.

I've chosen our library because I feel a definite sense of appreciation for the uncountable helps both educational and inspirational from the books and people there.

If I am elected it will be my pleasure to support and help what I consider to be one of the finest library systems anywhere--and to be the ears and voice of the library patrons. —CLAIREE TYNES—

MAKING LOVE come alive for guest home residents were members of Girl Scout Troop #537 who distributed the Valentines they are displaying. Front, from left: Becky Van Bibber, Delea Gonzales, Elizabeth Peralta. Middle: Desiree Simon, Debbie Lycette, Shireen Krelle, Stacy Iguchi, Chris Ehrich. Rear: Sara Garver, Dina Bowman, Kim Gross, Myra Rosten.

At its last meeting the Placentia Heritage Festival Committee elected new officers, set a tentative date for the 1977 festival and discussed several items relative to festival activities.

Bob King is the newly elected president and Mary Dunham, secretary.

The week of October 1 through 9, encompassing Saturday and Sunday of both weekends, was set for the 1977 Heritage Festival. Saturday, October 8 is the probable date for the parade, Marvin Reid of the committee reports. Carnival activities also would take place on the second weekend.

Several sites were discussed as possible carnival locations, however, no priority was given to any area, Reid added.

Discussion on hiring a coordinator to work with the various civic organizations and the carnival and to assist the committee in selecting entertainment centered on two trends. One possibility is to hire a professional coordinator similar to last year. Another approach would be to employ a local resident, retired or semi-retired who can spend the necessary time during the day to carry out the scheduled activities.

The final consideration of working without a coordinator was rejected by the committee.

Persons interested in being considered for the position of coordinator are requested to contact Bob King.

The next meeting of the Placentia Heritage Festival committee will be held Wednesday, March 3 at 8 p.m. at the Placentia City Hall conference room. Anyone interested in attending the meeting is welcome, Reid pointed out.

"Input regarding festival activities is important in planning this year's schedule," Reid explained. Suggestions may be sent to the Heritage Festival committee, P.O. Box 655 or given directly at any meeting.

Troop 537

Girl Scout Troop #537, under leaders Genie Gonzales and Ginger Krelle, recently made and distributed valentines for residents of the Town & Country Guest Home in Fullerton.

The valentines were decorated at the Home recreation room by Mrs. Gonzales and her daughter, Delea.

The troop had a book contest which was judged by Rosalyn Utt of the Yorba Linda Library staff. Winners were: Delea Gonzales, first; Shireen Krelle, second; Sara Garver, third and Stacy Iguchi, fourth.

The troop holds its meetings in the basement of the Yorba Linda Baptist Church.

"FIDDLER ON THE ROOF" will be presented by El Dorado students this weekend in the Valencia Auditorium. In the picture Scott Johnson [Fyedka] and Debra Eversen [Chava] are trying to get a moment alone without her sisters Janet Lightfoot [Shprintze, third from left] and Laurie Lewinson [Bulke] and mother Gayla Musgrove [Golda, in center].

"Fiddler On The Roof"

"Fiddler on the Roof," the musical of a Russian Jewish community around the start of the century will be staged by El Dorado High School's performing arts department at 8 p.m. Thursday and Saturday March 3 and 5, in the Valencia Auditorium, 500 N. Bradford Ave., Placentia.

Starring in the role of Tevya is Eric Post. He will be supported by Gayla Musgrove as Golde, Debbie Voigt as Tzeitel, Yvonne and Debbie Iverson as Hodel and Chave, Saff Bayatt as Motel, Jim Morrow as Lazar Wolf, Eric Traub as Perchik, Scott Johnson as Fyedka and Craig Vreeland as the constable.

Drama teacher Gar Jones directs the annual musical production, and Greg Carter is the student director. Richard Watson directs the orchestra, Dwight Fichtner the chorus and Melanie Millward the dancers. Randy Cobb is the special choreographic consultant.

Other students in the cast include Steve Bayatt, Eileen Cutts, Diana Diaz, Doreen Eadie, Guy Gardner, Glen Gentilin, Craig Kaufman, Janet Koplin, Laurie Lewinson, Janet Lightfoot, Mike Newmyer, Tim Peirson, Rick Pettet, Robert Pratt, Chuck Purnell, Kent Rethm, Mike Rosenberg, Jackie Smith, Cindi Snyder, Greg Sykes, Laura Wilcox, Lee Wirth and Mark Ukes.

Heading technical crews are Donald Millsap, business and ushers; Walker Price III, lights; Craig Vreeland, publicity; Lori Vecchio, makeup; Tracie Traub, props; Janet Mullinder, costumes; Kevin Lottie, sound; Marianne DePinto, tickets and programs; and Scott Johnson and Guy Gardner, stage crew.

Tickets will be available at the door for $2 for general admission, $1.75 for students with student body cards and $1.50 for children 12 and under. Senior citizens with district Gold Club cards will be admitted free.

Neighborhood Watch

A new community relations program has been announced by Placentia's Police Chief Norman Traub. The program is designed to facilitate communication between Placentia residents and law enforcement personnel.

The program, to be coordinated by Roger Gisler, Project Coordinator for the Quad City Crime Prevention Unit, and local resident Sylvia Hoskins, will consist of small neighborhood meetings or "coffee klatches".

Neighbors will have the opportunity to meet informally with officers from various bureaus within the police department. Officers representing traffic, juveniles, narcotics, burglary, and crime prevention, as well as residents' permanently assigned beat officer, will be available for a question and answer session.

Generally each meeting will include the area beat officer and two other officers. If your neighborhood is experiencing problems with juveniles and or fast traffic, for example, officers from those bureaus would then be present to answer your questions. Numerous movies and displays will also be available for viewing.

Placentia residents who are interested in participating in the program are invited to call the Quad City Crime Prevention Unit at 993-8225 or Sylvia Hoskins at 528-8956.

SYLVIA HOSKINS

Philip Hedlund

Funeral services were held February 25 for Philip Hedlund, 70, former superintendent of the Southern California Water Co. in Placentia. He passed away on February 22.

Mr. Hedlund also belonged to the Rotary Club, Chamber of Commerce and the Fullerton Masonic Lodge.

He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Patricia Hall of Placentia and three grandchildren, Kevin Hanson, Nicolette Hall and Scot Hall. Services were held at Mountain View Cemetery, Pasadena.

NOCCCD Asks for Opinions

Community opinion is being requested by the North Orange County Community College District for the development of specifications that will be used in the selection of a district chancellor-elect.

The district's chief administrative officer is Dr. Charles H. Wilson, who has announced plans to retire as chancellor in 1978. The district serves about 60,000 students through Cypress College, Fullerton College and an adult education program.

After broad-based community opinions have been summarized in March, they will be used to tell prospective candidates for the position about personal qualifications and job specifications required.

Recruiting and interview procedures are being scheduled so that a chancellor-elect could be appointed as early as next fall.

Receiving and summarizing community opinions will be Dr. Conrad Briner, who has been retained as the consultant for the board of trustees during the personnel search. He also will be accepting names of individuals suggested as qualified to be candidates for the chancellor-elect position.

Information can be addressed to Dr. Briner, Claremont Graduate School, Claremont, CA 91711. The summarizing of community opinion will begin March 18.

All responses will be confidential, according to Dr. Briner. He said that opinions do not have to be signed, but that they would be more valuable in the evaluation of responses if the writers would identify themselves by some phrase, such as community resident, student, alumnus or member of the district staff.

The consultant asked that community residents outline their expectations for the position to be filled, what they think others expect, as well as leadership talents and efforts they believe are necessary and significant, both now and in the future. He also asked that community residents explain why they believe as they do.

Salazar Named Director

James Salazar, a graduate of Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, is the new director of Placentia's Community Clinic which offers free medical service at the Whitten Community Center.

The medical assistance is free to local residents who cannot afford to pay for it, scheduled on Tuesday nights. Local doctors are donating their services.

Salazar formerly was employed in social welfare work in southern Illinois.

The board of the clinic is hopeful of finding appropriate quarters for the clinic which will provide it more scope and room to expand. Grants also are being explored for funding.

The new director said that the clinic can use donations of money and office supplies and is badly in need of a typewriter, a metal storage cabinet and chairs. Volunteers also are needed to assist with the services.

Senior Citizens

BY MURIEL SUTTON

Good music, good food, good friends make an enjoyable combination to welcome back to the Yorba Linda Senior Citizens Club its Social Meeting and Pot Luck Luncheon on March 9 at 12 Noon at the United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall, Third & Yorba Linda Blvd.

Dick Kaiser, president of the Yorba Linda Rotary Club, will be a special guest and will make a presentation to the Club.

Those who have 225 points or more and have not received a pin will receive one at this meeting. Membership cards will be issued. Hostesses for the day are Mesdames Hazel Lloyd, Martha Bell, Ruth Bell, Ruth Earl, Mary Bell and Ruth Bell.

Those attending the Pot Luck Luncheon should bring a salad, dessert or sandwiches and cassettes of music to dance to.

For further information call President Dorothy Wright at 528-5775.

Chorale Concert

The Concert Chorale of Cypress College, Marion Cousins, director, will present a concert at 8 p.m. Thursday, March 3, in the Cypress College Gardens Room, Hugh Sidwell Auditorium, 1220 Stanford, Garden Grove.

The program scheduled to include Dennis Hoiseth as pianist, Director Thomas Nelson as vocalist/actor, a medley of Dixieland and pieces from Fiddler on the Roof.

The concert segment will feature selections from Gershwin's Porgy and Bess. Featuring will be soprano Deborah Gilliland singing "Summertime" and "I Got Plenty o' Nuttin'." Bass Barbara Vest singing "English Ford Ballad," Scottish "Johnny I Hardly Knew Ye" and "Ho, Ro, Ro, Rio Grande." Tenor Jeff Cotton in "Mornin'" as arranged by Jester Hairston.

The concert from the chorale will then mellow the mood with numbers including Peter Denver's "Annie's Song" and the Anita Kerr arrangement of "Early in the Morning".

Following intermission, the Cabarets, a popular southland "big band", will get the place jumping with group II members, both professional and amateur musicians who love good music, will play a variety of classical light opera, ballads and a Mozart selection. Personalities by the Cabaret members conducive to dancing.

Dick Kaiser, president of the Yorba Linda Rotary Club, will be a special guest and will make a presentation to the Club.

Those who have 225 points or more and have not received a pin will receive one at this meeting. Membership cards will be issued. Hostesses for the day are Mesdames Hazel Lloyd, Martha Bell, Ruth Bell, Ruth Earl, Mary Bell and Ruth Bell.

Anything Goes

With opening night two weeks away, rehearsals have intensified for Esperanza's production of Cole Porter's "Anything Goes."

Efforts are now being directed toward set construction, lighting, costuming and make up.

CSF

The California Scholarship Federation members are planning their first Career Day to be held March 16.

Speakers representing various professions will discuss their careers with interested students. The event will involve the entire student body.

Sadie Hawkins

Sponsored by Girls League, Sadie Hawkins will be held March 12 in the Esperanza gym from 8-12 p.m.

"Sadie Goes West" is the theme for this year. Judge Roy Bean will be available to hitch couples. Also included will be an apple pie contest and the traditional Daisy May and Lil' Abner dress up contests.

Tickets will be $6 per couple presale.

Junior Class

After the success of their tootsie roll sale, the Junior class is planning a St. Patrick's Day Candy Gram sale.

The tootsie roll sale brought in a profit somewhere close to $300. Candy grams will be delivered on March 17 and will be filled with a surprise candy. Send one to your sweetie for only 50 cents.

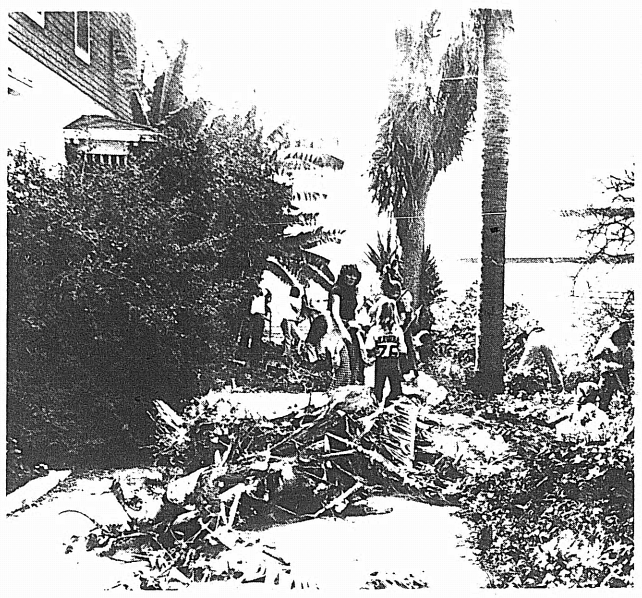
Senior Class

Because of financial difficulties due to the spectacular homecoming, the senior class has postponed their "official ditch day" to March 14, with tentative approval. Plans are still set for the mountains.

The first charter class is presently involved with fundraisers as their campus pickle sale. Future ideas are set for a bake sale at a local grocery store for Saturday, march 12.

The senior class recently completed the painting of the Alma Mater on the gym wall. A special thanks goes to Mrs. Higbee and her Commercial Art class.

The senior gift is now in full swing with the help of Mr. Ewing's Wood Shop class. The gift consists of a wooden bench around a shade tree for the senior quad.



PLACENTIA GIRL SCOUTS do a good turn for the community with some volunteer clean up work around the Bradford House. The vintage home has recently been spared from demolition by the Placentia City Council and leased to the Placentia Founders Society for $1 a year.

LINDA VISTA PHARMACY

In bygone times, the sick were treated with folk medicine because there was nothing better. Often these remedies were administered by the older women who worked with herbs and medicinal plants. Most of these did little good and, fortunately, little harm.

Not all these home remedies were worthless. Gargling with warm salt water was effective because the heat increased circulation and brought white blood cells to combat bacteria. Granny's tea made from willow leaves contained salicin, a source of aspirin and thus relieved pain.

Today, home remedies and non-prescription drugs can be beneficial if used properly. We're here to advise you regarding drugs and to fill your doctor's prescription. LINDA VISTA PHARMACY invites you for FREE coffee in our comfortable lounge.

Merit Broadens Appeal.

'Enriched Flavor'™ process adapted to new low tar 100mm cigarette with remarkable success.

MERIT established a whole new taste standard for low tar smoking.

If you smoke but haven't chosen to take advantage of the MERIT breakthrough because you prefer a longer length cigarette, you'll be interested.

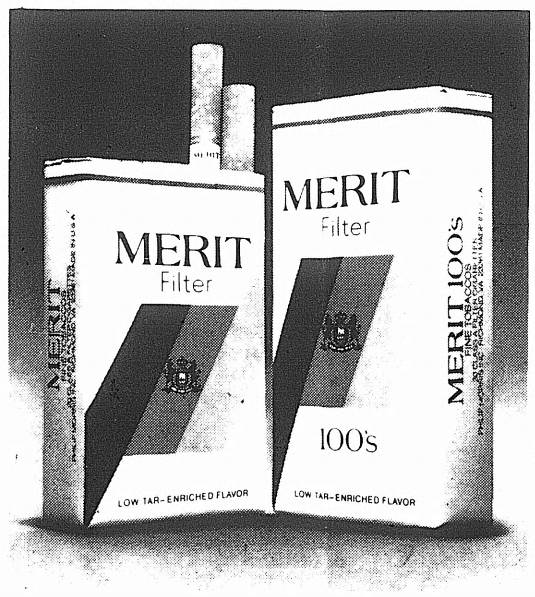
Because now there's a MERIT for you, too. New MERIT 100's. Only 12 mg. of tar. Yet packed with extra flavor. The kind of flavor that makes "low tar, good taste" a reality for 100's smokers.

'Enriched Flavor' Tobacco

Like MERIT, MERIT 100's are packed with 'Enriched Flavor' tobacco. Tobacco fortified with certain key flavor-rich ingredients isolated in cigarette smoke, and proven to deliver taste way out of proportion to tar.

We taste-tested MERIT 100's against some of the toughest competition we could find: higher tar 100mm cigarettes.

Here are the results.



MERIT & MERIT MENTHOL. KINGS & 100S.

Test Data Conclusive

New 12 mg. tar MERIT 100's were taste-tested against a number of major 100mm brands ranging from 17 mg. to 19 mg. tar.

Thousands of smokers were tested. The results: overall, they liked the taste of MERIT 100's as much as the higher tar 100mm brands tested.

MERIT and MERIT MENTHOL. King Size and new 100's.

The taste barrier for low tar smoking has been broken again.

Choral Festivals

Choral festivals will highlight Music in Our Schools Week next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, March 8, 9 and 10, in the Placentia Unified School District.

More than 1,700 vocal music students from the district's elementary, junior and senior high schools will participate in the concerts, which will be at 7:30 p.m. each evening in the Valencia High School Auditorium, 500 N. Bradford Ave. Placentia.

Themed "Youth in Harmony", the concerts will include "American Folk Trilogy", "Beautiful City", "American Suite", "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy" and "Sound of Silence", with a special section of songs from Walt Disney movies, according to district music coordinator William Foster.

The Tuesday program will feature choruses from the eastern part of the school district, including Fairmont, Glenknoll, Orchard and Van Buren elementary schools, Bernardo Yorba Junior High vocal and handbell choirs and Esperanza High Schools' concert choir and vocal ensemble.

Elementary choruses are under the direction of Jill Goodsell and Susan Sparks, the Yorba groups are led by Carol Reynolds and the Esperanza singers are directed by Dwain Miller.

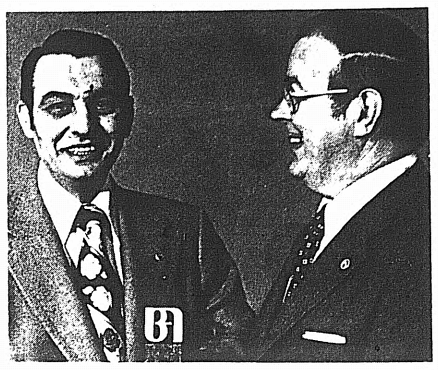
On Wednesday, schools from the southwest part of the district will perform. McFadden, Morse and Topaz elementary choruses will combine with the Kraemer Junior High choirs and the concert choir and vocal ensemble from Valencia High School.

Directors are Judy Mahoney and Susan Sparks for the elementary schools, Yvonne Crane with the junior high choirs and Ron Kean, high school vocal director.

Performing groups on Thursday will be choruses from Brookhaven, Golden Sierra Vista and Wagner elementary schools under the direction of Linda Schnable and Jeanette Schwartzkopf. Also on the program are the Tuffree Junior High choirs led by Mary Lou Dunn and the El Dorado choir and chamber singers directed by Dwight Fichtner.

A special set for the programs was designed by Cindy Lee, teacher at Topaz Elementary School.

All programs are free and open to the public.



TOP MANAGER -- Charles Barranco, manager of Bank of America's North Placentia branch, is presented special award by B of A President A.W. Clausen signifying his selection as one of the bank's most outstanding branch managers in 1976. Barranco, a 17-year B of A veteran and North Placentia manager since 1974, was one of only 20 selected for the award out of 1,050 managers in the bank's statewide branch system. It was based on office profitability, leadership, awareness of social problems and community involvement. He lives in Irvine.

Horse Safety Clinic

by Kay Starr

What's a horse safety clinic? It's a four-part program planned for all who own or think they would like to own a horse. The Orange County Farm Bureau is offering, free, to all who wish to attend, an all-day affair on March 5th, Saturday, at the El Rodeo Riding Club, 4449 Carbon Canyon Rd., Brea from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The program will cover first aid for horses presented by Orange County Veterinarians; responsibilities of horse owners by Orange County Sheriff's department personnel; care tips by members of the Cal-Poly Pomona staff and student body, and last and most important, a live demonstration of handling by 4-H leaders and members of the Orange County Farm Bureau, including loading and unloading from a trailer.

A special attraction will be a showing of the Arabian horses from the Cal-Poly Kellogg stables.

For those who want more, there will be a chuck wagon available for lunch, or you may bring your own lunch.

A similar program offered a year ago brought out several hundred interested horse owners and owners-to-be, according to Dur Thetford, executive manager of the Orange County Farm Bureau.

This year plans are made to provide for even more people participating. Owning a horse has become a very active part of many Orange Countians life.

Certainly this clinic, offered free, with special emphasis to the young person owning or wanting to own a horse, can be a source of answers to many of the questions that have been in your mind.

Mark your calendar now to attend this horse safety clinic at the El Rodeo Riding Club.

Sharon Habegger, award winning artist and student at Fullerton Community College, teaches an art class for children in grades 2 to 6. It meets from 4 to 5 p.m. on Friday afternoons in the Children's Department of the Yorba Linda Library.

Art craft and projects will be featured as well as work in different media, although the class is free, children may be asked to bring a few supplies. Call 528-7039 for further information.

Fiber Art Show

Ginger Krelle of Yorba Linda is one of the artists displaying her work in fiber art in the World of Weaving show through March 11 at the Cypress Community Center, 5700 Orange Avenue, Cypress.

The exhibit features intricately woven wall hangings, baskets made from a variety of natural materials and numerous exotic fiberous room ornaments.

The gallery is open from 12 noon to 6 p.m. weekdays.

CIF Results

With one exception, area high school basketball teams fared badly in the opening round of the CIF playoffs last Friday night.

Orange League champions and the 3A top ranked team from La Habra squeezed out a win over Garey High, 72-67, to be the only team to advance to the second round. They played Rubidoux of the Ivy League Tuesday night and results were not available at press time.

El Dorado lost 60-49 to Los Amigos. Brea was eliminated by Ganesha, 82-78.

The three Freeway League entries were wiped out. Champion Lowell was edged by Riverside Poly 76-75. Buena Park was dumped by Covina, 73-67 and Sunny Hills was topped by Damien, 64-61.

Servite, co-champs of the Angelus League, lost to Alhambra, 74-68, but St. Anthony beat Redlands, 66-53.

Booster Club Sponsors Car Rally

The Valencia High School Aquatics Booster Club will be sponsoring their First Annual Car Rally on March 12.

The starting place will be Valencia High School parking lot. There will be an entry fee of $3.50 per car with registration taking place between 5:30 to 6:15 p.m. The first car will leave at 6:30 p.m.

Cash prizes will be awarded. First place, $30, second place, $20 and third place, $10.

Hawk Boosters Schedule Paper Drive

Members of the El Dorado High School Wrestlers Boosters Club will conduct a paper drive Saturday, March 12 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the school's parking lot.

The Booster Club is attempting to raise funds toward the club's annual scholarships which are awarded each year to deserving seniors during Award Night ceremonies.

Last year the Booster Club awarded five scholarships to graduating wrestlers.

The newspapers need not be tied and a door-to-door pickup service will be available.

Further information can be obtained from Ray Blietz at 524-9936 or papers may be dropped off at the El Dorado parking lot on Saturday.

Bob-etts Take Names For Waiting List

The Placentia Bob-etts, grades 3 through 12, will begin softball practice this week, the group advises.

Girls are still being accepted for the waiting list. Those interested in playing should call Gerry Knutson at 524-1641 or Eula Mae McLaughlin at 528-6471.

Bowl Down Cancer Week

With the endorsement of the Bowling Proprietors' Assn. of Southern California, league bowlers and spectators throughout Orange County will participate in Bowl Down Cancer Week March 7-13 to benefit the American Cancer Society.

To take place in all Orange County bowling centers, the event is expected to net $13,000 for the society's education, research and service programs.

During Bowl Down Cancer Week, bowlers and spectators may contribute $1 for the opportunity to win donated prizes which include bowling equipment, complimentary dinners, amusement park tickets, gift certificates for merchandise and services, and trips for two to Las Vegas and San Francisco.

Persons interested in participating in Bowl Down Cancer week as volunteers or contributors may call the Orange County Unit of the American Cancer Society at 752-8600.

Bicycle Ride Planned By Libraries

The Placentia Library District in cooperation with the Santiago Library System (a cooperative of nine public libraries in Orange County) is participating in a bicycle ride to kick off their March-April Salute to Bikes and bicycling.

Those wishing to participate should bring their bicycle to the parking lot across the street from the Orange County Public Library Headquarters (look for the crowd!), at 431 City Drive South, in Orange, on Friday, March 4, at 9:30 a.m.

The ride will leave from there, swing across to the bike trail which follows along the Santa Ana River, travel down Chapman to the Plaza in downtown Orange, and end at the Orange Public Library, at 101 N. Center Street in Orange.

A police escort will be provided. Last but not least, there will be free refreshments courtesy of the Friends of the Orange Public Library.

Rodriguez Coach Of Year

BY COLEEN COLE

In his first year at Valencia, varsity basketball coach Ray Rodriguez was selected as "Coach of the Year" for both the Orange League and all of Orange County.

The selection was made by the newspapers participating in the Orange County Sports Writers Association.

"I was very pleased with the honor," Rodriguez commented, "but I was disappointed that we did not make the play-offs."

Ending the league season with a record of 8-6, the Tigers missed a chance to go to CIF by one point. Had they won their first meeting with Brea, which went into overtime, or the first time Valencia played El Dorado, which was lost for the Tigers in the last four seconds, the team would have made it to the play-offs.

In the season prior to Rodriguez's arrival, the Tigers had only won four games, and their finishing mark was 4-19.

However, things began looking up for the Tigers during summer league play. The final record for the summer was 20-5, and put Valencia in the right frame of mind to figure heavily in the regular season.

Rodriguez commandeered a total turn-around for the team, who's final season record came out to 17-8.

"I would like to thank the community for the super attendance and support that they showed for Valencia," Rodriguez continued.

"In most cases, we got twice as much support on the road as the other teams."

"The award was very nice," he added, "but if it wasn't for the team's dedication for improvement, it would have been just another season."

Team awards will be given out at the end-of-the-year banquet to be held next Wednesday.

Decision Against Lowery

For those who have been waiting to see H. Wayne Lowery defend his World Heavyweight Karate title on television, forget it.

Lowery reported that after spending a week in Dallas, Texas, preparing to defend his title, a "clarification" meeting was held. At that meeting it was decided to label the winner as the U.S. champion in "limited contact" karate.

Lowery, who operates a studio at 909 E. Yorba Linda Blvd., Placentia, holds the "full contact" title. He considered the decision to be a "very serious breach etiquette" and also objected to lowering first prize money from $6,000 to $1,500.

Lowery refused to compete under the circumstances. Thus, he did not get the opportunity to participate and will not be seen on the "Wide World of Sports" program.

Lowery said he is attempting to get eastern karate interests to do something about the situation. He added that if he gets money in advance and has a valid contract he will defend his title in Madison Square Garden in New York City in April.

Over 35 Tournament

The third annual Orange County Men's 35's Invitational Tennis Tournament will be contested March 8th through 13th at the Santiago Canyon Tennis and Swim Club in Orange.

The success of the past two years has attracted over 70 entries to be received already—including "top" players from the San Francisco Bay area.

The players will be competing for over $3000 in prize money in both singles and doubles events. The tournament schedule begins Thursday and Friday evenings, with semi-final matches slated for Saturday and the finals at midday on Sunday.

All qualification matches will be held Tuesday and Wednesday evenings March 8th and 9th.

Spectators are invited to Santiago Canyon Tennis Club during the entire tournament. The daily fee is $1 per person with juniors under 16 years free if accompanied by an adult.

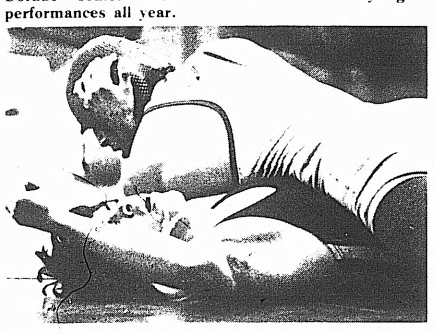
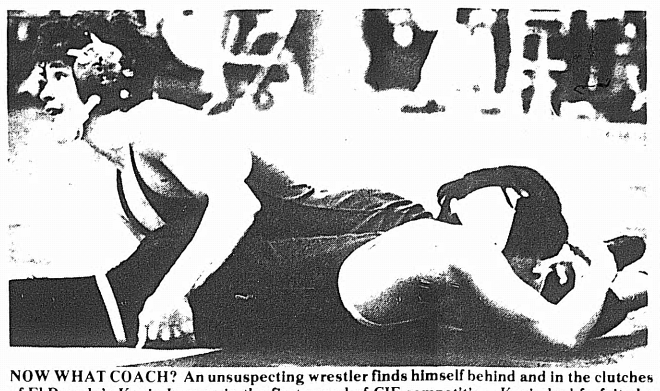
BOUND FOR STATE—Scott Speck wraps up his opponent to guarantee himself a trip to state and a bout in the championships, which he won later in the day. The El Dorado senior has turned in consistently good performances all year.



VALENCIA'S BEST—Mike Nava, Valencia's only wrestler to make CIF, turned in several good performances Friday, but failed to make the top five for state.



NOW WHAT COACH? An unsuspecting wrestler finds himself behind and in the clutches of El Dorado's Kevin Iwanga in the first round of CIF competition. Kevin had forfeited a match due to an injury in the sectional tournament and was then seeded lower than otherwise at finals. He finished fourth and will join his brother Keith and Scott Speck in the trip to state this weekend.

CIF CHAMP—Hawk Keith Iwanaga joined teammate Scott Speck in leading the Hawks to a second place finish in CIF and individual championships for both. The trip to state is a return for Iwanaga who finished fourth last year.

3 Gridders Recruited

Their exploits on the football field in the prep ranks, especially in the 1976 season, earned football scholarships for at least three local high school gridders.

Tony Bushala of Troy, who set the Orange County single season rushing record, will play at the University of Wyoming.

Behind Bushala, Troy had an 8-3 record and went to the second round of the CIF 3A playoffs. He gained 1,880 yards, scored 14 touchdowns on 306 carries.

Linebacker Dave Lobaugh and wide receiver Jim Teahan, Esperanza High standouts, both signed national letters of intent to go to Utah. They were instrumental in leading the Aztecs to the quarter finals of the CIF 2A playoffs last season.

CHAMPIONS

Girls tennis players at Esperanza High School won the school's first CIF championship and their second OI championship, reports Coach Jean Agee.

All-Star Coaches

Winter sports are wrapping up, spring sports are beginning to bud, but football grabbed the headlines with the naming of the coaches for the 18th annual Orange County All-Star prep grid game.

Pete Yoder, who led Esperanza to the championship of the Orange League and a berth in the CIF playoffs, will coach the South squad. His team had an 8-2-1 record in the 2A Division.

Bill Workman of Edison High will be the mentor for the North team. Last season his team had a 7-3 record and claimed the Sunset League title.

The Brea Lions Club sponsors the event from which funds are donated to Children's Hospital of Orange County. The game is set for July 14 but the site is undetermined at the present time.

Fake Tag, Collisions Ruled Out

One of the oldest ploys in baseball has become a victim of the rulemakers, at least in the CIF ranks.

Along with several excellent rule changes, the CIF has banned the practice of players faking a tag without having the ball. The punishment is stern for the misdeed...ejection from the game.

The news release outlining this and other rule changes contained no explanation for the rule revision. Speculation is that the action does sometimes cause a runner to slide into the base unnecessarily with the possibility of being injured.

Other changes are more understandable. Those earthshaking crashes, especially at home plate, have been banished. Now the runner will be called out if he does not slide or attempt to get around a fielder who has the ball and is waiting to make the tag.

The intent of the rule is to do away with violent collisions that have caused some serious injuries. In this same area, a runner will be ejected if he maliciously runs over the fielder holding the ball.

The new rules also provide that a player will be banished from the game if he throws his helmet.

Running starts, usually by a player on third base waiting for a fly ball to be caught before dashing for home, are eliminated under the revised rules. Players doing this will be called out.

Tigers Ready For Ball

BY COLEEN COLE

Currently preparing for league play on Valencia's diamonds is the Tiger baseball team.

Coached by Bill Borning, the team has met such teams as La Quinta and Sunny Hills in pre-season games. Friday, the Tigers will go against Buena Park in a non-league game, at Valencia, scheduled to start at 3:15.

Pitching this year for the Tigers will be: Carl Hill, Mike McCall, Don Reynolds and Steve Serafine. Veteran player Marc Lambert will be starting at catcher, with Don Singley playing first base.

Finishing off the infield, Steve Kirk will start at second base, Bruce Smith or Tom Bennett at third base, and Kelly Rosas at shortstop.

Outfielders will be Mark Benedict, Mike Buelna or Tony Deleon, right field, Nick Garcia, center field, and Frank Martinez, left field.

Valencia's varsity baseball record currently stands at 1-1.

The monthly paper drive at Nixon School will be held on Thursday, March 10. The PTA Newspaper Drive chairman said that papers may be left at the school lunch tables from 8 to 8:30 a.m. For further arrangements call 528-3733.

Lobos Pounce On Hawks

by Brian Hilderbrand

Orlando Ward's fourth period antics proved too much for El Dorado, as the Los Amigos Lobos handed the Golden Hawks a 60-49 loss, knocking ED out of the CIF basketball playoffs.

Ward, a 6'6" junior, scored 14 of the Lobos' 19 points in the final stanza, ending the Hawks' hopes of advancing in the playoffs. Ward finished the game with 19 points, Los Amigos' high scorer.

Teammates Warren Ellis and Phil Valoff were able to penetrate ED's tiring zone in the final stanza and pass to Ward for short jump shots from the lane.

El Dorado jumped out to an early 4-0 lead on jumpers by Reid Poole and John Heller. Los Amigos countered with two baskets of their own to tie the game at four apiece, but not for long.

Two more buckets by Jim Babcock and Poole put ED up 8-4 with 5:58 left in the initial period.

Los Amigos tied it again with 4:41 showing on the clock on a layup by Valoff and a jump shot by Angel Fuertes. But El Dorado retaliated with a 17 foot jumper by Steve Peacock and a free throw from Babcock to make the score 11-8.

Ellis put a shot in, and Fuertes sank a charity toss to tie the score once again. Hawk Jim Boyd hit on a jumper to give ED their last lead of the game, 13-11. The Lobos' Valoff put a 20 footer in with six seconds left in the period to tie the score at 13-13.

Free throws set the Hawks back in the second period, as Los Amigos scored 10 of their 14 points on charity tosses. El Dorado, frustrated at not being able to control the Lobos, found themselves committing unnecessary fouls. Los Amigos stepped to the free throw line seven times, attempted 13 shots, and converted 10.

El Dorado got four points from Heller and Boyd as the Hawks were outscored 14-8 in the period. At the half, Los Amigos led by six, 27-21.

El Dorado was paced by Heller in the third period as the Hawks tallied 16 points to the Lobos' 14, closing the margin to four; 41-37. Heller poured in eight points in the period, including a shot that put El Dorado within two, 33-35.

It looked like the Golden Hawks would pull off one of their comebacks in the final period. The fourth stanza opened with Mike Martin dropping in a layup and sinking a jump shot from the top of the key to tie the score at 41-41. But then Wade came on with 14 points to put the game away, though El Dorado made several feeble attempts to come back.

The Hawks were within four, 45-49, as 3:43 was left to play, when Wade ran off six straight points, including a crowd-pleasing slam-dunk. When the fans had settled down after Wade's heroics, Los Amigos held a commanding 55-45 lead with 1:50 left on the clock.

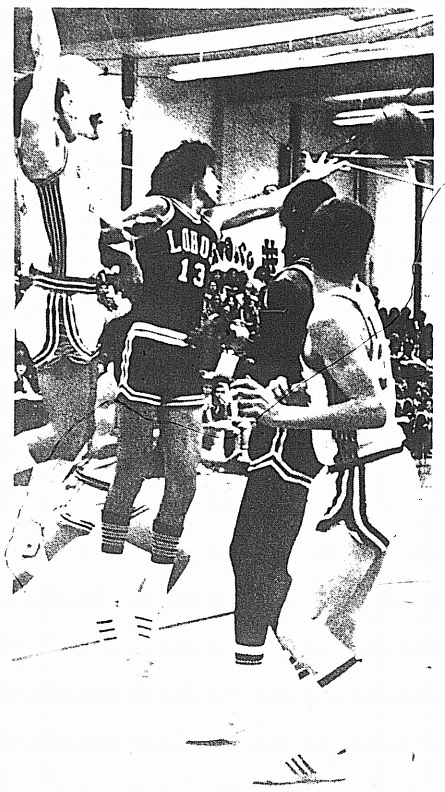
El Dorado pulled to within seven on the last Golden Hawk basket of the 1977 season. Reid Poole went underneath for a layup to put the score at 49-56.

Two free throws by Ellis and a reverse layup from Wade iced the score at 60-49. The Lobos had earned the right to advance to the second round of the playoffs.

El Dorado closed the campaign with a 16-10 record, 10-4 in league, second only to La Habra.

Rivera pointed to the first half, specifically the second quarter as the Hawks' downfall. "Our foul situation hurt us in the first half. We committed fouls that we shouldn't have," Rivera related.

High point man for El Dorado was Heller, with 16 points, followed by Boyd's 12 and Poole's eight. Babcock pitched in with five, while Peacock and Martin each had four points.



READY—El Dorado's Jim Boyd jumps high to guard the basket against a repeat shot after it bounces free on a missed shot. Watching is Chris Dressel. The Hawks closed out the season Friday night with the first round CIF loss to Los Amigos.

Lionettes Schedule

The Santa Ana Lionettes, Orange County's representative in the Women's Professional Softball Association, released their 1977 schedule.

With its first season under its belt, the International Womens Professional Softball Association will open the 1977 season in Santa Ana. Each team will play a total of 84 games of softball.

The calibre of play this season will compare very favorable to last year. The players from the 10 professional teams from last season have been consolidated into six super teams.

Connecticut, Buffalo, St. Louis, San Jose, Bakersfield and the Lionettes will field teams with top players at every position.

The pitching distance, traditionally 40 feet from home plate, has been moved back to 44 feet to add even more action to the game.

Davis Cup Play at NB

Tickets are on sale to the public for the Davis Cup 1977 American Zone-North Section finals set for the Newport Beach Tennis Club April 15, 16 and 17.

South Africa will compete with the United States during the three-day event. Winner of the Newport Beach competition will meet the winner of the American Zone-South Section competition between Argentina and Chile.

Two singles matches will be held on Friday, April 15, beginning at 11 a.m. A doubles match and an exhibition match are set for Saturday at 1 p.m. and two more singles matches will be offered on Sunday, April 17, at 11 a.m.

Childrens Hospital of Orange County will benefit from the sale of box-seat tickets and program advertising for this first-time-in-Orange County event. Volunteers from the hospital's 15 guilds will assist in sales and will provide ushering and other support services to assure a successful tournament.

Tickets are on sale in a temporary trailer located in the parking lot of the Newport Beach Tennis Club on Eastbluff Drive, west of Jamboree Road. The office will remain open seven days a week between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. through the tournament weekend.

All 7,000 seats are now being sold on a three-day series basis. Box-seats include VIP parking and special concession area privileges. Stadium box-seats are available at $150 per person with a $600 minimum purchase. General box-seats are $100 per person with a minimum purchase of $400. Reserved seats for the series are $50 per person courtside and $30 and $24 for grandstands.

Single-day tickets, if available, will go on sale after April 1. Further ticket information is available by calling (714) 644-6282.

Area Pair at Spring Training

Righthander Mark Wulfmeyer, former Troy High hurler and basketball star, and southpaw Dan Boone, who starred at Cal State Fullerton are among nine players from the California Angels farm system invited to join the 40 roster players for spring training.

They will report to the Holtville complex on February 21 and begin workouts the next day.

Wulfmeyer has compiled a 7-3 record on the single-A level in three seasons interrupted by injury and basketball at USC. He recently left the Trojans' hoop team.

Sail a tall ship to a small island.

Saba, Carriacou. Nevis. Grenadines. Bligh's breadfruit isle. Stevenson's Treasure Island. They are all here in the Caribbean waiting to be discovered again. Along with unforgettable beaches, forgotten forts, hushed volcanoes and picturesque little villages. Come with us on a 'barefoot' adventure 6 or 14 days, from $290. To remote islands. Aboard schooners once belonging to Onassis, Vanderbilt, the Duke of Westminster.

Van Buren Honors Pair

Toni Liebherr and Judy Kavahagh were selected as the recipients of the Honorary Service Award for 1977 by the Van Buren PTA. The Van Buren Match Game ended with this announcement on February 15.

Mrs. Kavanagh, the current president of the Van Buren PTA, has served in the capacity of ways and means chairman, two years as treasurer, program chairman, and this year as president on the PTA board.

She has organized and does all the leg work for the nutrition program initiated at Van Buren School this year.

She has three children and has been active in Bluebirds, Brownies, and during the last four years has served as cookie sale chairman for the Girl Scout Cadettes and one year as calendar sales chairman.

Mrs. Liebherr has served on the Van Buren PTA board for five years and has been essential to the school reading lab.

Her outstanding contribution to the school has been the organization, volunteer time, and operation of the school library. She is the mother of five children and is involved with the Girl Scouts.

The Van Buren School PTA, staff, children, and community thank these two ladies for their contributions.

LAW TALK

Bill Shapiro of Fullerton advanced student at Western State University College of Law of Orange County, met with students at El Dorado High School in Placentia last week to discuss careers in law. Dick Nycum is the high school's career counselor.

CHOC Fashion Show

On a "Magic Persian Carpet" is one way to travel to the 15th CHOC-Robinson's Fashion Show and luncheon to be held March 9 at 11:30 a.m. in the California Room of the Anaheim Convention Center.

"Tandem Travel" will be the theme. Traveling far and wide in "People to People Clothes"; whether for a cruise, business trip or just a vacation at home, all will be choreographed and coordinated for this special show by Robinson's Corporate Director of Fashions Florence Van Wagner.

There's a strong return of the peasant look and the new versions of popular layered attire, all highlighted by bright clear crisp whites.

Chairman of the hospital's Board of Trustees, Clifford Haskell, will be master of ceremonies. Generating more excitement is the more than 20 prizes, which include a Sitmar Cruise for two and an $1,100 diamond cluster ring.

This gala affair is sponsored by the 15 Guilds of Childrens Hospital of Orange County. For tickets or further information contact Fashion Show Chairman Mrs. Robert Jones: 528-7766 or Mrs. William Marx: 637-9723.

The Littlest Angel Guild is represented by Darlene Knoop, in charge of tickets and reservations and Gloria Jones as one of the chairwomen.

Juniors Aid School Opera

The Placentia Junior Round Table recently donated $100 toward the Placentia Unified School District's "Opera For Children" Fund for the 1977-78 school year.

The opera, "Cinderercella", given for sixth grade students in November, was such a success, they would like to bring another opera in for the enjoyment of the students. This is the second year that Juniors, who ushered at the fall production, have participated in this worthwhile project.

In addition, Juniors will provide a $35 scholarship for the District's Summer Music Camp for 8-12th grade band students.

Junior Guild Fashion Show

The regular meeting of the Junior Guild of St. Jude Hospital Guild will be held on Thursday, March 3 at 6:30 p.m. in the staff room of the hospital.

A Junior Miss Fashion Show will be featured, with fashions modeled from the Fig Leaf.

The show will be coordinated and commentated by Debby Lance from Valencia High School with models including Miss Lance and Pat Slaven and Marsha Glickman from Troy.

Girl Scouts Celebrate Anniversary

Local Girl Scouts will celebrate Scoutings 65th anniversary with a happening in Town Center Saturday, March 12.

Troops throughout the city will demonstrate Scouting activities. Brownies will be engaged in crafts and cookery; Juniors with First Aid, puppetry and bike registration and Minis with complete troop meetings.

A candlelight ceremony will cap the day and honor the birthday of Girl Scouts of the United States.

Janine Dovey Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. James Evan Dovey, Placentia, announce the engagement of their daughter Janine Lyn Dovey to Michael Paul Feder, Fullerton.

The groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Len P. Feder of Clearlake Highlands, California.

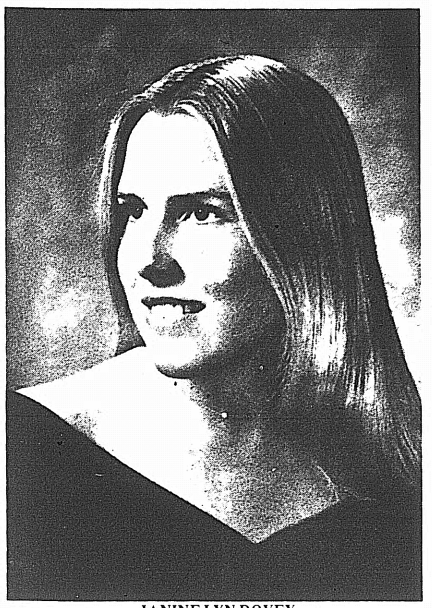
The engagement was announced at a dinner party at the home of the bride-to-be's parents attended by relatives and close friends. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Philip Baker, the bride-elect's god parents from Santa Ynez.

Decorations for the party carried a Valentine's Day theme, incorporating a birthday celebration for the bride-to-be's father.

Miss Dovey is a graduate of El Dorado High School and will graduate from Fullerton College this year. She is currently employed as a dental assistant.

The groom-elect is a graduate of Lower Lake High School in Lower Lake, California and is currently attending Fullerton College. He is employed by Denny's Administration Offices in La Mirada.

The wedding will be an event of June 25 at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Placentia.



JANINE LYN DOVEY

Hunter-Cothren

Mr. and Mrs. Dal Hunter are at home in Fullerton following their marriage January 15 at Yosemite Community Church in Yosemite National Park. The Rev. John Davis officiated at the service.

The bride, the former Candace Cothren is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Cothren of Yorba Linda. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunter of Sonora.

The bride's taffeta gown featured a chapel length train and a bodice of pin tucks. The maid of honor, Susan Cothren, and the bridesmaids, Carolyn Cothren and Kathi Cap, wore mint green polyester knit dresses. All carried nosegays of fall colored chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom's father was his best man and ushers were Vince Davis of Riverside and John Laing of Yorba Linda.

The reception was held in the Solarium of the Ahwahnee Hotel and the couple left for their honeymoon in Aspen, Colo.

The bride is a graduate of Cypress College nursing program and is presently attending California State University at Fullerton. The bridegroom received his Masters Degree in geology in August from University of California at Riverside.

AARP Meeting

The North Orange County Chapter No. 773 of the American Association of Retired Persons, Inc. will present Pins as a token of appreciation to the past and present Presidents of the Chapter.

These men are Cy Young, Nick Carter, Jim Zinter, George Marston and the president Albert Mason.

This meeting will be held on Wednesday March 9, at the Senior Citizens Building, 340 W. Commonwealth, Amerige Park.

YMCA Yoga Class

The Spring session of the Yorba Linda YMCA Yoga class will begin Monday evening March 7th to April 25th on the top floor of the Yorba Linda Library.

Two classes will be held every Monday. An intermediate class for those with previous experience will run from 6 to 7:30 p.m. A beginners class will go from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

The instructor, Carol Steffan, is considered one of the top Yoga teachers in Orange County. Her background includes years of studying dance as well as seven years of teaching Hatha Yoga.

The class will be open to men as well as women. Interested teenagers and senior citizens are encouraged to register.

To enroll for her Yorba Linda class, contact the YMCA at 5035 Lakeview, just South of Yorba Linda Blvd. The "Y" is open daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The telephone number is 993-5111. Cost of the class is $10 per month.

Choir Will Entertain Senior Club

The Placentia Senior Citizens Club will have a special musical program as part of their Birthday and Anniversary Celebration on Wednesday, March 16.

The Valencia High School A Cappella Choir under the direction of Ronald Kean will be performing beginning at 1 p.m. at the Placentia Senior Citizens Clubhouse, 143 South Bradford Avenue.

The Club is open to all Placentia Senior Citizens every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 11 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

"SUNSHINE BOUQUETS" is the theme for the NOC Beta Sigma Phi fashion show to be held on March 5. Gloria Newell of the Upsilon Omicron Chapter will be one of the models. [Debbie Conkey Photo]

Upsilon Omicron

Being honored at the March 2nd meeting of Upsilon Onicron chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will be Mrs. Joan Bautista, of Santa Ana. The chapters newest member will be honored with a Pledge Ritual in the home of Mrs. George Norwine of Yorba Linda.

Members will also vote for their "Girl of the Year" which will be announced at the North Orange County's Council Annual Founders Day dinner at the Los Coyotes Country Club on April 28th.

"Philosophy" will be the topic of the program to be presented by Mrs. Leslie Bailey, of Santa Ana and Mrs. Pat Cutright of Anaheim.

Final plans will be made for the NOCC Fashion Show to be held on March 5th at the Elks Lodge in Fullerton. Chapters member Mrs. Gloria Newell will be modeling at this event.

Prayer Day Unites World

World Day of Prayer will be celebrated by Church Women United in Fullerton on Friday, March 4, at 9:30 a.m. at the Orangethorpe United Methodist Church.

Women in thousands of communities across the nation will join in this 90th annual chain of prayer that links each woman's voice with millions of others in 170 countries and islands.

The Day's message, "Love In Action", will be addressed by the assistant minister of the Orangethorpe United Methodist Church, Ms. Linda Pickens, a third year student at the Claremont School of Theology. Music will be furnished by soloist Ted Perkins and organist Ms. Janet Kuelen, both from the host church.

This year's service, prepared by women in the German Democratic Republic, will be used by Protestant, Roman Catholic and Orthodox women to express their unity in prayer on this most important ecumenical and international observance of the year.

Chariman of Ecumenical Celebrations, Mrs. Karl Fanning, Lark Ellen Christian Church, has announced the following participants in the day's program: chairman, Mrs. William Pemberton, Orangethorpe United Methodist; voices, Mrs. Robert Bodini, Placentia Presbyterian; Mrs. August Beining, St. Stephen's Lutheran and Mrs. Orpha Aney, First Christian.

Also Prayer Group Leaders: Mrs. Albert Merriam, St. Stephen's Lutheran; Mrs. Allen Mysliicki, Placentia Presbyterian; Mrs. Robert Bowman, Placentia Presbyterian; Mrs. Jack Keech, Orangethorpe United Methodist and Mrs. Karl Fanning, Lark Ellen Christian.

Registrars include Mrs. Evelyn Dabner, Emmanuel Episcopal and Mrs. Carryl Hardwick, Emmanuel Episcopal.

Mrs. John Hildebrand, newly installed president of Church Women United, invited all women in the north Orange County area to attend prayer vigils at 9:30 and the worship service at 10 a.m. The church is located at 2351 W. Orangethorpe, Fullerton, telephone 525-8317. Child care will be provided. Mrs. Ralph Diedrich in charge of publicity reports.

Quackery

For every dollar spent this year by responsible organizations on legitimate research for the cause and cure of arthritis, more than $25 will be spent by arthritis victims on useless "remedies" and "treatments" cooked up by quacks, the Arthritis Foundation reports.

Webbeking Hall Dedicated

Rev. E. G. Webbeking

Rev. A. G. Webbeking of Yorba Linda was honored recently when a new facility at Stephen's Lutheran Church in Fullerton, named "Webbeking Hall", was dedicated as the church celebrated its 20th anniversary.

Rev. Webbeking, D.D., is retired and a member of St. Stephen's. He served the Southern California District, Missouri Synod, from 1933 to his retirement in 1962, working on the mission program.

He started 119 mission churches in Southern California and Arizona and was responsible for preliminary surveys, location and purchase of properties, consulted with architects and supervised construction in most cases, including St. Stephen's initial building in 1957.

Facilities of Webbeking Hall include four classrooms, large youth room, Fellowship Hall capable of accommodating 350 persons, commercial kitchen, lounge, ramps and restroom facilities for the handicapped.

Rev. Oswald Waech, D.D., was guest speaker at the worship service in which Pastor Rev. Paul Cooper and former pastor, Rev. Theodore Schoessow, participated. Also taking part were Rev. Harvey Ehlers and Dr. Walter Lossner.

Immunizations At Morse Free Clinic

Free immunizations will be given at a clinic sponsored by the Orange County Health Department on March 7 at Morse School, 431 Morse Avenue.

The clinic will be held from 3-8 p.m. in the school multipurpose room and is open to the public. Immunizations will include the DPT, polio, rubella, mumps and measles vaccines.

According to Barbara Mori, school nurse, this clinic will provide an excellent opportunity to update the immunization programs of older children, especially the 14 and 15 year group since boosters are required every ten years.

Assisting at the clinic will be Morse PTA members under the direction of Eleanor Barbour, health chairman.

NEED WHEELS? There will be some available along with a number of other interesting items at a three day rummage sale sponsored by St. Joseph Women's Council at the Parish Hall. Sale dates are this Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Sale hours are from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. A bake goods sale also will be included. Trying out the merchandise are Alberta O'Hara, Rita Wheeler and Judi Finnell.

Lenten Vespers Begin

Beginning with March 2, Lenten Vespers will be held at the Redeemer Lutheran Church, Placentia, starting at 7:15 p.m.

"I Met Jesus When He Suffered" will be the general theme with first person portrayals of some of the people who were with Jesus, given at the special services.

Pastors Erwin Walz and Brian Stoffregen will share the pulpits with several other pastors who will bring the weekly message. Special music will be presented by the junior and senior choirs and soloists.

Themes for the services include March 2: Pastor Brian Stoffregen, "I Crucified Him"; the Centurion's Story; March 9, Pastor Dan Hansen, "I Condemned Him"; Pilate Speaks; March 16, Pastor Leroy Miller, "I Denied Him"; Peter remembers; March 23, Pastor Richard Hites, "I Replaced Him"; the witness of Barabbas and March 30, Pastor Herman Meyer, "I Betrayed Him"; the Confession of Judas.

Emphasis Week

"Insight Through Awareness" is the Theme for Religious Emphasis Week, to be held March 8-11 at California State University, Fullerton.

Sponsored by the Inter-Religious Council, the week's activities will focus on the nine major world religions.

Activities will include lectures, panel discussions, displays and films.

Missions Week at RD Friends

March 6-13 is Missions Week at Rose Drive Friends Church. Special programs will be going on all week starting Sunday morning March 6, with the presentation of "Afraid to Love" from Biola Student Missionary Union.

While providing a world wide overview of missions today, this program points out many misconceptions about missions and the need for greater involvement by Christians in spreading the Gospel. This program will be presented at 8:15 and 10:45 a.m.

Sunday evening at 6 p.m. the missionary film "Peace Child" will be shown. Also featured will be Jaime Morales (Spanish Pastor) with music from Bell Friends Church.

Wednesday, March 9 at 7 p.m. the Mission Aviation Fellowship film "On Wings of Love" will be shown. This exciting film journies into the personal lives of a young Marine pilot and his family in the midst of their missionary training.

Thursday, March 10 at 6:30 p.m. the ladies Missions Banquet will be held with guest speaker Dr. Vera Schlamm. This Jewish pediatrician will relate her personal experiences which led to the writing of the book "Pursued". A buffet dinner will be served and special music will be provided. Cost is $2.75.

Saturday, March 12 at 8 a.m. a Men's Breakfast (sons included) will be held with Chris Adsit, decathlon specialist with Athletes in Action sharing his testimony. Cost is $1.25 for men and $.75 for boys.

The week's activities will conclude on March 13 with Faith Promise Sunday. At 8:15 and 10:45 a.m. services Jack Walker presently vice president for Latin America in charge of all MAF operations from Mexico to Brazil, will be speaking. Jack along with his family, spent 1963-1970 serving in Mexico as MAF pilot-mechanic.

Sunday at 6 p.m. Phil Thompson of Athletes in Action Campus Crusade and Jack Walker of MAF will be speaking. A special cantata by the choir will be presented. Announcement and recording of total Faith Promise commitments for 1977 will conclude the evening service. Dessert and fellowship time will follow.

Moravian Hunger Banquet

"What better way is there to observe Lent, the 40 days Christ fasted in the wilderness, than to fast ourselves out of concern for the hungry of the world", Pastor Withro related as he shared his congregation's plans for a unique "Hunger Banquet" to be held for members and friends at 12:30 p.m. Sunday, March 6th.

The banquet is open to the community - anyone concerned with helping to feed a hungry world. The menu will be rice and tea. The program will include a multimedia presentation entitled "What Do You Say To A Hungry World?"

Following the program "Love Loaves" will be distributed to each family. "They are small coin containers which will be kept on the dinner tables," explained Pastor Withro, "as a reminder that while we have much, others have little or nothing to eat. I think it will be a very tangible way parents can teach their children compassion. As the family prays for the world's needs, they also put coins in the love loaf each day."

Pastor Withro said that the love loaf containers will be kept in the homes for a two-month period and then brought to the church for a "Loaf Breaking Celebration".

This will occur very appropriately on May 1st which is designated on the church calendar as the beginning of "Christian Family Week."

The Hunger Banquet and Love Loaf Program is sponsored by the congregation's Board of Elders who are Bob King, Kathi Nelson, John Chapin, Bruce Young, Renny Crenshaw, Bonnie Holmes, and Kim Messick.

Group Formed for Bereaved Parents

For parents that have suddenly lost a child, it is difficult to accept that fact and continue life as it was before.

To deal with day to day living, particularly, if there are other children in the family, puts a drain on the emotions of all members of the immediate family, and also those persons they deal with daily. There is a definite need to associate with others that are going through the same emotional crisis.

A newly formed group in Orange County wants to meet this need. Led by Barbara Doss, a licensed clinical social worker and licensed marriage, family and child counselor, the group meets at the Huntington Beach Community Free Clinic, 506 Orange Ave., Huntington Beach.

Meetings are every other Tuesday evening from 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. The group is only open to parents of children who have died suddenly.

The National Institute of Mental Health under the auspices of Chapman College sponsors the discussion group, free of charge.

Anyone interested in attending, or needing further information may call Barbara Doss at 834-3827. A professional person will answer this phone 24 hours daily, 7 days a week.

Bishop on Radio

The Most Reverend William R. Johnson, First Bishop of Orange will be the guest on "Catholic Dimensions", the new Diocese of Orange Radio program, on Sunday March 6, at 10:30 a.m. on KYMS 106.3 on the FM dial.

The weekly radio show, hosted by Tom Fuentes, Director of Communications for the diocese, is a discussion format presenting the activities and people of the Catholic Church in Orange County. This will be Bishop Johnson's first broadcast appearance.

KATIE'S COLUMN
by Kay Starr

Even the time that I drove 60 miles of narrow two lane highway in New York State with fog so thick that the center white line was barely visible, I was not as frightened as turning south off the freeway onto Beach Blvd. and not being able to see the car ahead nor behind nor on either side of me.

In fact, the traffic lights weren't visible until directly under them. Worse yet was encountering an accident at the intersection where I turn, and still worse was having to make a left turn into our parking area with the oncoming traffic not visible until they were upon me.

For once, I can't blame the addition of grey hairs on my off-spring. We need radar units in our cars for these pea soup mornings. Also, cars need to be equipped with a voice that says, "Hey, turn off your lights, dummy!"

She also believes in getting me to turn the faucet off while I am brushing my teeth. Ugh! Can't stand the noise of brushing my teeth. It must be a hang up from childhood.

Taking fewer showers may be appealing to some, but my household seems to find the place they like best is the shower. I listen for the singing, but hear none, so that can't be the attraction.

From the looks of them, cleanliness can't be the answer. There has to be some explanation, or, I suppose, it could be another of life's mysteries, like "Big Foot".

Someone beat me to it. They have written a book about collecting collectors. People who collect things and what they collect has been a most intriguing hobby for me.

One friend collects swizzle sticks (I even brought some to her from our vacation last summer) and now has two shoe boxes full. She's saving them for a gigantic party.

My grandmother collected buttons, but only those that she found as she walked along the unpaved streets. She kept them in a tin cigar box for her grandchildren to play with.

May people collect mundane items like matchbook covers, post cards, bottle caps, car license plates, rocks, glass insulators, pieces of barbed wire (which I have never understood), but collecting the collectors I thought was different.

Display of Insignias

The Yorba Linda District Library is now displaying a collection of military insignias. Ted Richards, Fullerton, is the collector of these military emblems, which represent different categories of the Armed Forces.

At age five he became interested in these eye-catching, brightly colored patches which he had seen on his uncles' military uniforms.

Friends and relatives have helped Richards accumulate these emblems, which form a nearly complete set. If there is anyone who would like to add to his collection, please contact the Yorba Linda District Library.

For those interested in seeing the insignias, they are being displayed in the Adult Department of the Library.

Letters To The Editor

McFadden An Investment

Dear Ms. Mead;

In regards to your article on the closing of McFadden School, which I strongly oppose. Even though it costs a lot of money to operate McFadden, to close it down would be like giving up an investment.

An investment made by parent's so their children may get a good education. If the children are bused to other schools not only does it cause protest by the children, but the parents must think about the added expense of busing.

Progress is good, but it is not everything and to tear down something like McFadden is like condemning Valencia High School.

Sincerely yours,
Jackie Tarsen

McFadden Disgrace

To The Editor:

Recently the PUSD school board voted to close McFadden in the absence of support from the electorate and in fact in opposition to the many people directly affected.

Elected officials everywhere seem to be doing this increasingly. They call it "voting their conscience." I say it's time to call a halt.

Apparently the only way to get their attention is to fail to return to office those who ignore the wishes of the community they represent.

We have a good opportunity here to do something about it. We can refuse to reelect John Balducci. And we can also refuse to elect those candidates supported by any of the present board members. And at the next election, we can again refuse to reelect any incumbent who was a party to the McFadden disgrace.

If twice the usual number of voters turn out with this in mind, we should in due time have a school board which is reponsive to the wishes of the electorate.

Sincerely,
Beth Clark
Placentia

More Sports Please

Dear Sir:

I am writing to your paper to talk about your sports column. In my opinion only the sports that are best known by people seem to be advertised. Other sports seem to be ignored. Such as cross-country. If anything was ever published it was published a month after. By then it has no meaning.

I think that if you're going to do sports you should advertise all sports not just favorites. They should all be equal. Every sport has a meaning to someone and you should have enough consideration to make every sport known.

Thank you,
Shelly Craig

[Editor's Note: Two things limit our sports coverage and neither one is lack of interest. We are limited though by insufficient space and available students to write up sporting events for us. If you know of anyone who could provide sports coverage, call us at 528-2525].

What Would Happen In McFadden Sale

If the trustees of the Placentia Unified School District sell the McFadden Elementary School property, where will the money go?

According to Dr. Harry Schwilke, Los Angeles, field representative for the Bureau of School Facilities Planning, the money would probably revert to the state and would be credited to PUSD's account to retire its bonds. It is unlikely that the money would stay at home.

As to whether a "good" price could be given to the city of Placentia in buying the McFadden recreational lands if the schools sell them, Dr. Schwilke said that would be up to the Orange County legal counsel to decide. It would be a matter of individual legal decision.

Balducci Lists Platform

Balducci who has almost perfect attendance at board meetings also has served as the district's representative on the North Orange County Regional Occupational Program (ROP).

He considers himself and the board "fairly conservative fiscally and fairly liberal when it comes to educational philosophy. One of the more liberal members of the board he has voted for such student backed enterprises as the open campus lunch and designated student smoking areas on campus.

Active in the drive to pass the $20 million bond issue, he recently voted to close McFadden School as an "economy" measure.

Balducci, who is supporting Guy Ehrich as a second school board candidate, is an engineering graduate from the University of Connecticut. He is 43, married and he and wife Marie have three children: Bonnie, 21; Susan, 16 and John, Jr., 12.

He was at one time a member of the U.S. Army Presidential Honor Guard and says he enjoys fishing, golf, gardening, camping, sports and kids.

In community activities he has been involved in the Y-Indian Guides and in 1972 was named Man of the Year by the North Orange County YMCA.

On local issues he believes that Valencia High School should be updated. "I think we're going to have to get more kids in there," he explains.

About future building of schools: "You look at all that development going on out east in Yorba Linda and what Yorba Linda is annexing, and you know sooner or later you are going to have to have an elementary school there."

Balducci also was the principal advocate of annexing the Yorba Linda elementary school district to PUSD but has seen that venture fail. The Yorba Linda district is now attempting to unify within its own boundaries.

Concerning collective bargaining: "I support the right of public employees to collectively bargain for salaries, fringe benefits, working conditions. I believe equally strongly in the people retaining the right to determine what is to be taught, with professional consultation provided by educators."

Balducci says about his candidacy: "I enjoy serving. I'm excited about the things we're doing, and I'm enthusiastic about our future and the challenges that remain."

Mrs. Jackson Succumbs

Mrs. Vertie J. Jackson, a long time resident of Placentia, died last Wednesday in a Fullerton Hospital at the age of 80.

She is survived by three daughters, Estaleene Antinoro, Ella Reese Shelton and Muriel Brown, formerly of Placentia; a brother Carl C. Jackson; sisters, Ina Liles, Rena Johnson and Lora Turner; grandchildren Jill Shelton, Michael Brown and Myron Brown and a great grandson Jeffrey Brown.

Services were held Saturday at the Westminster Memorial Park Mortuary and Cemetery, conducted by the Westminster Memorial Park Mortuary.

THE WINNERS—The Kraemer Junior High School Band was third and the Color Guard first at the recent Carson Anniversary Parade. The band director is Gary Lee and members of the Color Guard in back are Angela Egbert, Kim Mason, Cathye Patten, Kim Van Hooser and Color Guard instructor Carol Ellis. In front, Sandy Hanson, Michele Porter and

Kraemer Adds Trophies

Two more trophies have recently been added to the growing number at Kraemer Junior High School. The Color Guard Unit brought home a first place trophy from Carson's New Horizons Parade on February 19. This is their second trophy for the year.

The Marching Band was awarded the third place trophy from the same parade, bringing their total for the year to five.

Because of their outstanding performances in recent parades, the Kraemer Marching Unit has been invited to participate in the 12th Annual Azalea Festival Parade in South Gate on March 13. The parade will be videotaped for telecast the following weekend.

College Candidate Statements

Dr. Adamson Would Improve Colleges

—DR. GERALDINE ADAMSON—

The community college should provide students with salable skills, including opportunities for career changes, programs for easier transfer to 4-year colleges, satellite courses selected by the communities involved, special interest activities, etc. If all students' needs were being met, the current decreasing enrollment trend would be reversed.

We must also find ways to help finance education without increasing the load of the taxpayer. For example, we could assess fees for the use of facilities not directly a part of the educational program, make recreational programs self-supporting, contract with local industries to provide their in-service education, selectively assess tuition, etc.

I believe I have the expertise to function as a member of the Board of Trustees and successfully serve the communities of the North Orange Community College District area.

McClendon Interested In Colleges' Future

—LEE MCCLENDON—

I received the BA Degree in Mathematics from California State University, Fullerton, in 1970, and have completed CSUF graduate courses in accounting, economics, and management. In 1974, I completed the one-year course, "National Security Management," conducted by Industrial College of the Armed Forces, Washington, D.C.

Since 1973, I have been a Trustee of Yorba Linda Library District and in January, 1977, was elected President of Orange County Chapter, California Special Districts Association. In December, 1976, I was elected to the Executive Committee of California Association of Library Trustees and Commissioners. I also serve as a Director of CSUF's Alumni Association and an alternate delegate to the statewide Alumni Council of California State University and Colleges.

My home has been in north Orange County since 1966. I have four children and am vitally interested in working for the best possible educational facilities for them and all others who wish to further their educations by attending our community colleges. Owning a home and paying taxes insure that my votes as your Trustee will be consistent with the best interests of all citizens and taxpayers throughout the District as well as the Trustee Area I wish to represent.

Zavala Unavailable

No statement from nor interview with district three incumbent of the North Orange County Community College District Board of Trustees, Salvador Zavala, appears in the Placentia Courier.

Zavala, who has homes in both Placentia and Yorba Linda has not been available at his Placentia home and his Yorba Linda address is unknown to the Courier or to either of the school boards on which he serves, the Placentia Unified School District and the North Orange County Community College District. Neither board has a phone number where he can be reached and both boards report they do not know his place of employment.

Interrante PUSD Candidate

Interrante, who is a second generation law enforcement officer, is in the footsteps of his father who was a member of New York City's Finest for 25 years.

The candidate came into law enforcement after attending St. John's University in Jamaica, New York for two years, taking general liberal arts with no specific emphasis.

He later attended St. Thomas Seminary in Bloomfield, Conn. After that he joined the Air Force. He became a member of the Orange County Sheriff's department several years ago, graduated number one in his class at the Sheriff's Academy.

The remainder of his education was completed at California State University at Fullerton where he has earned an AA degree in criminology and bachelors and master's degrees in political science and public administration.

He will be 35 in April, is married to Marcia, who is a dispatcher with the California Highway Patrol and they have a four-year old daughter Alycia.

Interrante is equally outspoken on employer-employee relations in the schools. "I would like to go on public record as being opposed to the concept of an exclusive bargaining agent."

"There is much diversity of opinion among teachers regarding many basic questions as there exists in any other walk of life. When you force any substantial number of teachers to either support an organization which they may be opposed to for one reason or another, or not to be represented at all, to me that is unjust."

"There is a basic fundamental question today as to whether teachers and, for that matter all public employees should have the right to strike. I would like to go on record as opposing the right to strike for any public employee and in that group I include teachers."

"I do however believe in the concept of collective bargaining for all employees either public or private."

"The question comes down to a basic issue of social justice. The taxpayers do not have the option not to pay their taxes. They must pay their taxes. When they do they contract for certain social services which justice must be provided to them. To deliberately withhold services which they are forced to pay for is unjust."

"I would like to say at this time that if elected to the Placentia Unified School District Board of Trustees, I will do my absolute best to listen to all sides of any controversy without being swayed by the perceived clout of any one group."

"Primary among this however must always be the parents of the kids to whom we are directing our efforts. Parents are primary educators of children and I think we often forget that."

"I think I am bring to the school board a viewpoint and perspective little heard from any more. Sometimes our public leaders become somewhat divorced from reality in the eyes of the common man. We never want to get lost in ivory towers. Being a deputy sheriff I think I have a knowledge of social problems dealing with youngsters that very few in our society have."

"When you consider the fact that after the economic question people are most concerned about crime and the ravages to the young people, I think that we should have somebody on the board that understands what the needs are and can think of some practical remedies to them."

"Vandalism in our country is costing untold amounts of money and this district is no different. Who has more expertise in that area than someone who has been involved in law enforcement?"

"I think we do have a crisis in education today. Kids are not getting educated. They are not getting educated in those things that really matter. It's one thing to provide young people with a lot of facts but unless those facts are put together in a cohesive manner to show the essential units that exists between all academic disciplines, it means nothing."

"There are three questions that if you don't know the answer to you're lost and I don't care how many degrees you have. Where did I come from? What am I doing here? And where am I going?"

"We have many kids today who are totally confused. They seek escapism in all kinds of diversions, narcotics, sex. They have no real understanding of what their life is all about. There is a great difference in teaching knowledge and something else that education is supposed to transmit and that is wisdom. That's what education is about. It's wisdom."

"It does not impress me that the school builds big, beautiful physical plants, nice carpeting and all the latest in physical gadgetry that our technological society can produce. It looks nice on the outside, but what are we teaching on the inside?"

On patriotism: "I don't mean to sound schmaltzy or saccharin but I do believe in patriotism. I do believe we have a lot to be patriotic about. Nothing is perfect and this country is not perfect but there is much that is good about it and that ought to be emphasized."

"Many of our institutions and some of our people have forgotten the roots from which they came. They have abandoned those roots and those principles. These principles to me are what has made America strong."

La Jolla Rather Fight Than Switch

community. We must have the firmness to pursue this."

The community group is expected to seek the assistance of other Mexican-American organizations in their fight to save the school. One committee was scheduled to organize these efforts.

"We can no longer be complacent and passive," one speaker pointed out.

Other spokesmen emphasized that among the residents are people who have paid taxes to the school district "longer than anybody." If the land is sold, it was pointed out, the money would not come back to their pockets but would go to buy schools for somebody else.

The group also is expected to make contact with political figures in the area to seek their assistance.

"We're going to continue fighting, we're going to take legal action; we're going to file an appeal; we're going to get an injunction and we refuse to compromise with John Tynes," one of the mothers outlined.

"We're going to put a stop to them taking our school away.

The organization's legal committee said they would be holding additional meetings with two attorneys who have offered their services to see what they need to do first.

At the neighborhood meeting chairman Jimenez had read a letter from Tynes, who is the superintendent of schools in the PUSD.

Tynes congratulated the group "on the way you conducted yourselves" at the recent school board meeting and indicated he would work to preserve the school as a center for the people in the community. Those attending the neighborhood meeting indicated they did not wish to pursue that avenue further.

Community leaders were calling for residents in the school district "to support us at the polls." If all the registered voters who usually don't get out to vote will make a special effort this time and if we can elect two people who will help us keep our school open, maybe we have a chance," one parent pointed out.

"We need a lot of votes and we need votes for the candidates who have said they will support us in our plea to the board," a veteran resident emphasized. "We've lived here longer than anybody but nobody on the school board pays us any attention," he added ruefully.

STOP Members Place

Six Swim Team of Placentia members placed in their event at an AAU "AB" meet at Cypress College on February 19 and 20.

In the 13 and 14 year old girls competition, Nancy Sadlak placed first in her 200 yard individual medley "B" group with a time of 2:31.17. Julie Poole took first in the "B" 200 yard breaststroke with 2:48.00. The relay team of Julie Poole, Jill Ward, Nancy Sadlak, and Kim McAfee came home with third place in the 200 yard medley with 2:09.95.

Mike Tillman was second in both the "B" 50 yard fly with 45.96 and "B" 50 yard back with 48.20 in the 7 and 8 year old boys events. Mike placed fourth in the "A" 100 yard freestyle with 1:16.59.

Placing in the 11 and 12 year old girls events were Lori McAfee with two fourth places in the "B" 100 yard back 1:17.06 and 200 yard individual medley 2:43.79 and fifth place "A" 200 yard free 2:15.86. Saundra Oberle took fifth in her 200 yard "B" freestyle with 2:21.22.

David McAfee came in sixth in both his "B" 100 yard free 1:13.38 and 200 yard free 2:39.17 for the 9 and 10 year old boys competition.

Swim Team Goes To Invitational

The Valencia High School swimming team travels to Lowell High School for the Lowell Invitational Prelims on Monday, March 7 at 2:45 p.m. Finals will be held Saturday, March 12, at 1 p.m.

On Friday, March 11, the Tigerfish will go to Saddleback High School for a non-league encounter at 3:15 p.m.

After eight swim meets thus far this year, the Tigers record stands at four wins and four losses. Many of the point getters are either freshmen or sophomores. The future looks bright for Valencia in swimming.

Donkey Basketball

Upcoming activities at E.H.S. will feature a donkey basketball game to be held April 20.

Faculty members will be competing against students in four quarters of basketball starting at 7 p.m.

Ten mules have been rented for the event. The burros will have protective covers over their hooves to prevent scarring of the gym floor.

Esperanza principal David Andrews and assistant principal Terri Krause are two of the contestants signed up to participate in the game.

Richard Rowe Graduate Of Navy School

Navy Hull Maintenance Technician Fireman Apprentice Richard F. Rowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Rowe of 926 Cobb, Placentia, was graduated from Basic Hull Maintenance Technician School.

During the 8-week course at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, students received instruction on the basics of welding, pipefitting and metalsmithing. They studied the procedures used to fabricate, install and repair all types of shipboard structures, plumbing and piping systems.

A 1975 graduate of El Dorado High School, he joined the Navy in July 1976.

Aztecs Girls at La Habra

Opening their season with a 2-2 record, the Aztec girls basketball team will play La Habra Thursday.

According to Varsity coach Cec Ponce: "La Habra had a good team two years ago when they were in our league, but I don't know how our team will fare against them this year. If we can hold them under 30 points then I think we will see our third win."

With only three returning Varsity players, Ponce stated: "Our team is off to a fair start. They are rapidly improving their offensive and defensive techniques. The team contains five freshman, three of which are starters."

The teams most recent loss came at the hands of Fullerton in which they were trounced 47 to 32.

In other league contests the female cagers lost to Valencia in their opener 58-31. The Aztecs then went on to easily defeat Brea 46-32. El Dorado, defending their CIF title, were stunned as the Aztecs sailed by them 39-31.

In non-league action, Mater Dei defeated Esperanza 59-27 and Villa Park edged the Aztecs 31-25.

Also compiling a 2-2 record, the E.H.S. J.V. coach Sandy Garcia in her first year of coaching at Esperanza, stated: "If we learn to play well as a team, we can place high in Orange League."
